My Family

I've considered YouthHope to be my home for years now. I always stop by to get food and hang out. I would utilize their computer lab when I needed to get homework done or when I wanted to look for a job.

They even helped me find housing when I was kicked out of my house.

A few months ago, my depression reappeared. I had been able to keep it at bay through medication and counseling.

When it started coming back, I was really struggling. I should of told someone at YouthHope, but I kept it to myself. I ended up turning to alcohol and drugs even though I knew that wasn't the answer.

After a few days, I knew I had to tell Heidi. I went down to YouthHope and instantly broke down. I told her I needed help and she immediately found me a rehab center in Nevada.

I left California the next day.

I really didn't want to leave. I wanted to pretend that I could fix my problems myself, but deep down I knew that I had to get out of my current situation to be able to heal.

I've been at this rehab center for over a month now and I'm feeling better. I know I will be here for a while and I'm ok with that.

And you know who I call any chance I get? The people at YouthHope. They are my family. They want to know that I'm doing ok and they check up on me all the time.

So whether I find my way back to Redlands or if I stay around here to keep my sobriety, I know I will always have my support system just a phone call away.

Thank you for being my biggest cheerleaders! I will succeed!

Did You Know?

Homelessness went down by 34% in the last year in Redlands.

A Note From the Founder

We are having a great summer here at YouthHope. We have many youth in summer school, lots of youth working, and many youth coming to YouthHope for a safe place to be during the day.

Our Boy's House and Girl's House started summer by getting together and having a game night. It's so important to us to create a family like environment for our youth in our houses. A place that feels like their own with supportive people helping them.

I can't wait for our upcoming Car Show! This is such a fun day for the whole family. There is something for everyone in the family to enjoy. An incredible car show which features some of the best cars around, vendors to shop from, yummy food to eat, a kids zone, among other things.

If you have car to show, make sure to sign up soon to take advantage of the free T-shirt.

If you have any questions, email fundraiser@youthhope.org.

I hope you are enjoying your summer. Whether you are on vacation, or surviving the heat at home, I hope you are surrounded by family and friends! Thank you for your continual support to YouthHope!
