

Crashing Wayward Releases Single “Breathe (Album Version)” via RFK Media

Crashing Wayward is offering up a powerful new mix of the song “Breathe” as their debut single from RFK Media. Available December 16th on iTunes, Spotify and all major distribution platforms, this version gives everyone a strong taste of what’s in store on their first full length album and serves as the perfect introduction to this exciting new band.

While Crashing Wayward’s sound can be categorized as alternative rock, they exhibit a diverse array of influences from Foo Fighters to Queen to Stone Temple Pilots and many more. The recording sessions were produced by Mike Gillies, who has also worked with Metallica, Motley Crue and The Cult among many others.

The members of Crashing Wayward characterize “Breathe” as “a modern alternative rock anthem rejecting intolerance.” Before signing with RFK Media, the band self-released a music video for the initial version of the song which can be viewed at <http://breathevideo.com>.

Solid support in their home base of Las Vegas includes having “Breathe” cranked up in the arena there during an NHL playoff game and airplay on hometown station KOMP 92.3 FM. Since their debut concert there in 2021, they’ve performed throughout the southwest and are now gearing up for an appearance March 18th at the Nashville ROCKNPOD Expo and the KEELFEST 2 concert event. “Breathe (Album Version)” will also be featured on the RFK Media compilation album “Live The Rock” releasing worldwide in February.

B R E A T H E

Saw you yesterday before the sky was falling down
Held you last night before the night was burning down
I want to run the streets that bare your name
Drown the fear and rise within your flame

Yeah - and I...feel alive...for the first time

I, I can breathe, breathe free
Yeah - and it takes all of me not to scream
Set me free

I promise that today, Jesus takes the wheel
I promise that today, there's no one left to heal
And I want to breathe in life, rise with its flame

Yeah - and I...feel alive...for the first time

I, I can breathe, breathe free
Yeah - and it takes all of me, set me free
Yeah - I can breathe, breathe free
Yeah - and it takes all of me not to scream

I was sleep walking, talking sleep
Hours walking, talking sheep

Yeah - I can breathe, breathe free
Yeah - and it takes all of me, hear me scream, set me free
Yeah - and it takes all of me not to scream

I feel alive for the first time
