

New Trainings for 2024-2025

The Essentials of Reading

Must have training for all teachers who work with young or struggling readers.

- ☑ Understand the sequential elements of teaching reading
- ☑ Know why the curriculum presents these important steps
- ☑ Come to an understanding of acquired skills vs. learned skills
- ☑ Help students gain greater mastery of reading, writing, and spelling
- ☑ Equip teachers in gaining greater student comprehension

Discipline in the Christian School

Let's Do it God's Way

- ➔ Looking at discipline in the classroom and school-wide as a way to touch the heart of students.
- ➔ Helping students learn how to deal with their sin in a biblical way
- ➔ Teachers learn how to be part of the restoration process.

The Forms and Procedures are Ready for Use!

This training comes from years of experience in leading schools and watching the myriad of systems in each class and the disillusionment and discouragement of students.

Help your staff get on the same page for the students.

Lis Richard is an educator of 37 years including teacher, administrator, superintendent, trainer and consultant. She is a passionate leader who loves to invest in others. Her training and writing are examples of passion in action.

She holds two undergraduate degrees in education and a master's degree in Curriculum and Instruction. She has published articles in education and is excited to make available her new book which is a resource for parents and educators—A Pocket Handbook for Teaching Reading.

She is a wife, mom and grandma. She has six children and is blessed with 15 grandchildren. Her life experience in the home and ministry truly brings the pages of this book to life.

