

Traci Garnelle Staggs, Instructor

Traci Garnelle Staggs is from Tampa, Fl and began her dance training at the All American Dance Factory. She danced competitively for over 12 years winning many special awards and national titles. Her first job was right out of High School at Busch Gardens in Tampa, Fl. After two years she decided to take her performing to the high seas.

Traci danced for Norwegian Cruise Lines and Holland American Cruise Lines. After those contracts she was cast as a principle dancer in "ONE" The Show at the Alabama Theatre in Myrtle Beach, SC. She was there for over 4 years and met her husband while performing. Traci now lives in Germantown, OH with her husband and little daughter Nelle and has been teaching dance for the past 7 years. She loves to inspire young minds with her passion for dance.
