

Victor Rocha, Instructor

Born in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Victor is now subsiding in Lebanon, OH where he is currently an Principal Dancer at De La Dance Company. After moving to New York City at the age of 7, he started training at the School of America Ballet and upon graduation in 2007, he joined Sao Paulo Companhia de Dance where he performed works of Balanchine, Groecke, and many more. In 2012 Victor joined the Royal Ballet of Flanders in Belgium, and then in 2016 he was hired by RWS Entertainment Group in New York City to be part of the creation of a brand new show package for Holland America Cruise Line. After performing all of the world on cruise ships for over 4 years, Victor is happy to settling down and fulfilling his teaching and choreographing, while also continuing his love for performing.