

Principles of Working with Individuals with Learning Disabilities Level 2

The aim of this qualification is to develop an understanding of how having a learning disability affects individuals and how you can maintain good practice to help support people to live normal lives and integrate into society.

What knowledge will be gained?

This course offers an opportunity to increase your understanding and awareness of the core principles of supporting individuals with learning difficulties. The course provides an insight into supporting people with learning disabilities and the autistic spectrum. The key principles of safeguarding, positive risk taking and personalisation are explored, as well as issues surrounding healthcare.

How is the course assessed?

You will receive an information pack and the resource to enable you to give written responses to questions in a work booklet, either handwritten or typed depending on your preference.

What are the benefits?

- *Achieve a nationally recognised Level 2 qualification
- * Further your personal and professional development
- *Increase your knowledge and awareness
- *Gain positive working relationships
- * Learn at a time that suits you without the need to attend college

What will be studied?

The course is split into 6 units:

Unit 1: Understand the context of supporting individuals with learning disabilities

Unit 2: Principles of safeguarding and protection in health and social care

Unit 3: Introduction to personalisation in social care

Unit 4: Principles of positive risk-taking for individuals with disabilities

Unit 5: Introductory awareness of autistic spectrum conditions

Unit 6: Principles of supporting individuals with a learning disability to access healthcare

Who can apply?

Courses are funded for people who are aged 19 years or over, have lived in England for the past 3 years and who are not currently accessing any other government funded training.

This course would be ideal for anyone working with or looking to work with individuals with learning disabilities in a variety of roles or who have an interest in learning more about the conditions.
