

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Kaylee Jane Stallings in support of her application for the Coolidge Scholarship. As her pastor, I have had the privilege of watching Kaylee grow in character, leadership, and service over the years, and I can say with confidence that she is an exceptional young woman whose integrity and compassion set her apart.

Kaylee has been a faithful and gifted leader in our student worship ministry. Her maturity, humility, and sincerity are evident each time she leads. She consistently demonstrates a deep sense of responsibility-not only in her preparation but also in the way she encourages and supports those serving alongside her. Younger students look up to her, and she has willingly embraced the role of mentor, offering guidance, friendship, and a positive example for them to follow.

Beyond her leadership within the church, Kaylee has shown remarkable dedication to serving others in our community and beyond. She has participated in numerous local mission projects, always approaching each opportunity with a joyful spirit and a genuine desire to meet the needs of others. Her commitment to mission work has also taken her across the country. I had the privilege of witnessing her heart for service firsthand during our mission trip to Denver, Colorado. Additionally, she has invested her time and effort in projects in Nashville, Tennessee, and Asheville, North Carolina, all of which demonstrate her willingness to step outside her comfort zone to make a meaningful impact.

What stands out most about Kaylee is her character. She is dependable, honest, and compassionate. She treats every person she encounters with dignity and kindness. Her ability to lead with both strength and grace makes her not only an effective leader but also a deeply trusted and respected member of our church community. I have no doubt she will continue to excel and positively influence the lives of those around her. If you need any additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Dr. Mark

Williams

Senior Pastor, Woodridge Baptist
Church, Mobile, Alabama