Newsletter September 2026

It's officially been one year since the inception of the City West Lotteries House newsletter! A big thank you to everybody who has helped bring this newsletter to fruition in the last 12 months. Let's take a moment to look around the building and see what we've all been up to in this busy time!

TENANT NEWS

Developmental Disability WA

DDWA, through the Department of Communities, is offering sponsorships to support organisations and groups to hold inclusive community events or activities on or around International Day of People with Disability on 3 December 2026. Sponsorship amounts of $250, $500, $750, $1000 and $1250 are available for organisations to deliver community events or activities, including: disability festivals, sporting events, disability forums, workshops, seminars, award ceremonies; art, music, dance and other cultural events. Events and activities must celebrate people with disability and raise awareness of the importance of welcoming, accessible and inclusive communities. This sponsorship funding aligns with the vision of A Western Australia for Everyone: State Disability Strategy 2020-2030 to build a more inclusive Western Australia and empower people with disability to participate meaningfully in all parts of society.

Applications close Monday 5th October

Urban Bushland Council

The 20th of August saw UBC's first "Strengthening Our Collective Influence" training workshop. The session saw lots of fantastic ideas on how to work collaboratively, communicate better, share what works and build joint technical solutions and support. If anyone is interested in joining them in the future, please contact UBC by email.

On Sunday the 16th of August, 34 people joined Melon Hill Bushland Group for a Bush to Beach Walk through Allen Park, Swanbourne, marking three decades of restoration. Founder Lesley Shaw guided the group, as walkers followed parts of the iconic Whadjuk trail, took in sweeping views from Rottnest to Fremantle and learnt about threatened ecological communities, Carnaby's Cockatoos, quenda and wrens. Laminated before-photos showed the cleared landscape volunteers started with. Jennifer Allen, State MP Sandra Brewer, Mayor Leonie Browner and councillors joined the walk, capped with a generous volunteer morning tea.
