This week the Parish Cross was lit up red, the liturgical colour of the Christian martyrs, in solidarity with all persecuted for their faith around the world, in the Middle East and especially in Gaza. November 19th marked Red Wednesday in the Church, a day when we are particularly asked to pray for the millions around the globe who suffer for the Christian faith and all persecuted faith minorities.

This week the Sanctuary Lamp burns for a special intention.

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.

Amen
