

EQUINE CAMPING, TRAILERING, AND TRAIL RIDING CLINIC

Do you have anxiety about camping with your horse? Do you need help in mastering backing up your horse trailer in that skinny camping spot? Do you and your horse need help with trail riding etiquette? Are you worried about riding with groups of people? Do your horses have separation anxiety if one is left behind in camp while the other is on trail? The clinic will cover all these topics!

Other information presented will be trailer safety, understanding GVWR, max towing, required documents for traveling with your horse, different containment options for camping, manure management, horse and human basic first aid, and a presentation on different trails systems in the area.
