Even though your local government has, to our knowledge, not yet taken any steps to suspend evictions, your Landlord has chosen to follow the spirit of the Order and suspend this eviction action as to you, if you qualify.

In order to qualify to have your eviction suspended, you must submit a statement notifying your Landlord (at the address above) that you have experienced a substantial decrease in household or business income, and that that decrease was caused by COVID-19, and/ or the state, local, or federal government's response to COVID-19. You may notify your Landlord of your intention to assert this defense by filling out and returning the attached form.

Attachment 1: Notification to Landlord of Eviction Protection Due to COVID-19

THIS NOTICE SUPERSEDES ALL PREVIOUSLY SERVED NOTICES TO PAY OR QUIT

NOTIFICATION TO LANDLORD OF INCOME LOSS DUE TO COVID-19

On March 16, 2020, Governor Gavin Newsome Issued Executive N-28-20 (the “Order”), that authorized local governments to limit a Landlord’s ability to evict a tenant between the date of the Order and May 31, 2020.

The Income Loss Documentation only applies in the following situation:

1. The basis of the eviction is nonpayment of rent, or a foreclosure.
2. The nonpayment or foreclosure arises out of a “substantial decrease in household or business income, that was caused by COVID-19, or the governmental response to COVID-19,” including:
 - a. Layoffs or reduction in hours,
 - b. Substantial decrease in business income due to reduced operable hours or consumer demand, or
 - c. Substantial out of pocket medical expenses.
3. The decrease in income is documented.

If 1-3 apply to you, then you may be an “Affected Tenant,” meaning your Landlord will take your documented income loss into consideration. This documentation does not waive any unpaid rent, but may delay an eviction for a period of time.

If a landlord initiates an eviction for nonpayment of rent during the period the Order is in place, an Affected Tenant should notify the landlord, and provide documentation of income loss due to COVID-19, prior to the expiration of the three day notice.

You may use this form to notify your landlord that you intend to stop an eviction because you are an Affected Tenant:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Amount of Rent Due and Unpaid: _____

I intend to seek protection against eviction for nonpayment of rent under the Order, because I am an Affected Tenant (as defined above). My household or business income has substantially decreased as a result of COVID-19, including the governmental response to it, due to the following: (you must check at least one)

Job or Income Loss due to COVID-19

Missing work to care for a child due to school closure in response to COVID-19

Reduction of hours due to COVID-19

State or local emergency action, in response to COVID-19, that prevents me from working or opening my business

Substantial increase in out of pocket medical expenses due to COVID-19

Other: _____

Documentation Required. In addition to notifying your Landlord of your status as an Affected Tenant (above), you may only claim COVID-19 as a Defense to eviction if you have, prior to the Notice of Termination expiring, provided written documentation or other objectively verifiable proof of your status as an Affected Tenant.

I have attached the following required documentation of my status as an Affected Tenant:

Letter from employer citing COVID-19 as a reason for reduced work hours or termination.

Paycheck stubs from before and after the COVID-19 outbreak

Bank Statements showing financial situation before and after the outbreak of COVID-19

Other proof of substantial loss of income related to COVID-19
