STANDING RULES

No member may use the Club's name or roster for money making or publicity purposes without the approval and consent of the Board of Directors.

The Club must remain nonpartisan. Any political or controversial matter to be discussed must be approved by the Board and both sides presented at any meeting.

Members desiring to bring matters of business before the Club shall present the same in writing to the Board of Directors.

The Philanthropic Committee shall present their preliminary report to the Board of Directors at the November Board meeting, and their final report at the December Board meeting. They shall present all philanthropies, such as checks and donations, to whatever charities they have decided upon at the regular April general membership meeting. The amount given to each charity is to be included in the monthly newsletter sent to all members in April. The total amount given to all philanthropies combined shall be stated at the time of presentation. Each out-going elected officer shall give to her successor all files, records and other property pertaining to such office at the time she relinquishes such office.

The First Vice-President shall be in charge of selecting a gift for the out-going president.

In the event of illness of a Club member or member of her immediate family, a card will be sent. If the member is hospitalized, a card will be sent to her home address. Due to hospital rules and restrictions, flowers (and sometimes cards) are not allowed to be delivered to patients in ICU or critical areas. In the event of the death of a member or a member of her immediate family, a card will be sent. In addition to the card, flowers or a donation to their selected charity should be sent at a cost not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00)

All Board Members (Officers and Directors) are automatically included on the permanent Luncheon List for all regular luncheon meetings. If they are unable to attend, it is their responsibility to cancel their reservation.

All past Presidents shall be sent an invitation to attend the October Birthday Luncheon as a guest of the Club. Their lunches are to be paid for by the club.

Any member (or their guest) who fails to cancel their reservation at least 48 hours in advance of the meeting date will be billed for their lunch.

Because the Club is not permitted to pay for guest speakers, the speaker may sell their books or promote their activities.

Guest vendors at club events are separate third parties assisting us with fundraising efforts. This is accomplished by the vendors either paying the club a flat fee or a percentage of the total sales.

The Club, as a separate party, is not responsible for items purchased, exchanged or returned. The Club will accept the vendor's policy as to whether they will exchange or reimburse funds to purchasers, minus what was contributed to the Club on purchases made. The flat fee or percentage of the total sales given to the Club as a donation by the vendors is nonrefundable.

The Nominating Committee may, if they deem it appropriate and only under their direction, select an outstanding member of the year and honorary members.

An outstanding member of the year may be chosen based on her exemplary service to the Club during a given year. An honorary member shall pay no dues, but shall retain full voting rights.

An Honorary Member candidate will have served a minimum of three (3) times in a senior position either as President, 1st, 2nd or 3rd Vice President.
