

AS YOU GO: PREPARING FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHY ARE YOU GOING TO ANNUAL CONFERENCE?

This may sound like an odd question, but why you? Why are you being sent to Annual Conference? Prayerfully consider your answer over the next few weeks.

Consider these additional questions:

- What does God want me to hear and experience?
- How can I prepare to hear from God?
- What do I need to do or change to be fully present at Annual Conference?

Write your answers on this tag for your car's rear view mirror. Place the tag on the mirror. When you see it, ask God to help you with your preparations.

Take this mirror tag inside with you when you arrive at Annual Conference. You will fill in the other side when you are there!

WHILE YOU'RE THERE: DEFINING YOUR CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

Spend a few minutes at the start of this conference defining your challenges. What are you going to accomplish at Annual Conference? Anything is possible when you focus on meeting your challenges.

WRITE YOUR CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

ORGANIZATIONAL—Set one organizational objective that will inspire you and that is important to you. What do you want to accomplish or create?

PERSONAL—Set one personal objective that will enhance your life, your ministry and your skills for missional engagement.

SPIRITUAL—Set one spiritual objective that will impact your walk with God and help you more fully integrate your faith and work.

Review these objectives at the end of Annual Conference.

Before you leave, place this car tag in on your rear view mirror. On your trip home, prayerfully consider these questions:

What next steps do you need to take?
Who might help you achieve them?
