

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to provide this letter of recommendation for Brice Bartholomew. As someone who has had the opportunity to work with Brice, I can confidently say that she is an exceptionally hardworking, responsible, and talented individual.

During her time as Kitchen Manager and Cook from March 2021 to 2023, Brice single-handedly managed all dinner service operations with remarkable efficiency and professionalism. She was responsible for overseeing meal preparation, designing daily menus, and maintaining the highest standards of food quality and kitchen organization. Her ability to work independently in a high-pressure environment was truly impressive.

Brice has a natural talent for multitasking and problem-solving, ensuring that every meal was prepared on time while upholding food safety and cleanliness standards. She consistently demonstrated a strong work ethic, adaptability, and a positive attitude, making her an invaluable asset to our team.

Beyond her technical skills, Brice's dedication to customer satisfaction and her ability to remain composed in fast-paced situations set her apart. She has a genuine passion for hospitality and takes pride in delivering excellent service. Any employer would be fortunate to have her on their team.

I highly recommend Brice for any role she pursues. If you have any questions or need further details, please don't hesitate to reach out.

Best regards,
