Pastor's Letter

Fr. Gerald E. Murray

Dear Parishioners,

Thursday June 19th is the observance of Juneteenth, a Federal Holiday celebrating the end of slavery in our country following the defeat of the Confederacy in the Civil War. There will be only one Mass at 7 AM. The church will close after Mass. The rectory office will be closed. Happy Juneteenth!

Happy Fathers’ Day to all our parish fathers! May St. Joseph, husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary, foster father of Jesus, and patron of our parish, serve as a guide and intercessor for all fathers in the fulfillment of their vocation to love and serve their families. The Fathers’ Day envelopes will be placed upon the altar during the month of June.

The school year at St. Joseph’s School ends on Friday June 20th. God bless all our students, teachers, school staff, and parents who together make up this wonderful community of prayer, learning and charity. I would like to thank our Principal, Ms. Theresa Bernero, for her dedication in leading our parish school. May God bless her, and her faculty and staff, as they enjoy the summer break. See you all in September.

There is still time to donate to the 2025 Cardinal’s Appeal. Your gifts help Cardinal Dolan meet the expenses associated with the spiritual, educational and charitable works of the Archdiocese of New York. Cardinal’s Appeal donation envelopes and informational brochures are available at the back of the church.

God bless you!

Fr. Gerald E. Murray
Pastor
