Fr. Gerald E. Murray

Dear Parishioners,

I am writing from Rome where I am doing television commentary on the upcoming papal conclave for EWTN and Newsmax. The conclave will begin on May 7th. 133 cardinals under the age of 80 will gather that day for Mass in the Vatican before entering the Sistine Chapel to commence voting for the next pope. Our own Archbishop, Timothy Cardinal Dolan, is among those who will elect the next pope. He was also in the conclave that elected Pope Francis.

Please keep the cardinals in your prayers. May the Holy Spirit guide them in choosing the most suitable and capable man among them to lead the Catholic Church as the successor of Saint Peter.

I am keeping you all in my prayers as I visit the different churches of Rome. I plan to return to New York on May 13th if the new pope has been elected by then. Unfortunately, I will miss our parish confirmation Mass which will be celebrated by Archbishop Gabriele Caccia on Thursday May 8th at 5 PM. We are grateful to Archbishop Caccia for coming to our parish.

God bless you!

Fr. Gerald E. Murray, Pastor
