Theme: Arts & Crafts

This week is filled with various activities in the visual, performing, and literary arts. Mixed with daily crafts and a game or two, the girls will get to express themselves, create take-a-way crafts, and play games that keep them thinking. A little bit of everything keeps this week exciting. Examples are painting, dance, theater, writing, crafts, songwriting, and more.

July 8-12, 2019 | July 29-Aug 2, 2019

Theme: Animals & Nature

This week is filled with many hands-on activities and games that revolve around the earth and the sea. From gardening to bird houses to animal films to games like Who Stole My Chicken, the girls will have loads of fun, and will leave with a better understanding of the world in which they live.

July 15-19, 2019

Theme: Games, Puzzles, and More

This week is all about silly fun. Whether sitting or moving, their minds will be challenged as they work independently and in teams to accomplish their goals. Silly prizes will be given out for silly reasons. Examples are board games, puzzles, team games, mind games, and manual dexterity games.

Choose one of four mini workshops as a FREE thank you gift to ladies enrolling their tween girls in one or more of our summer camps, and to our Celebrate My Gifts Quest volunteers.

The events are also open to other women 18 years or older at $79 for each half-day workshop.

We guarantee laughter while we exercise your brain and your manual dexterity. Our full-day workshop provides us with 15 different games to choose from, so you're sure to be able to show off your abilities—or not. Who cares? It's all fun and it's all about you!

Workshop fee (if you don't qualify for free admission) includes participation in all games and a chance to win very silly prizes. Snacks and beverages will be available throughout each session.

You'll get a taste of what a full day of games is like with us. What games will we play?
