Reflection:

“Take courage, it is I...
do not be afraid.”

Jesus speaks to our hearts today, inviting us to not be afraid as we courageously offer our lives in service of the Gospel message of love and reconciliation. We may be tossed about by the winds and waves of contemporary life (e.g. violence, indifference, laziness, selfishness, etc.) and yet God continues to inspire us in the faith-filled lives of our spiritual leaders and fellow companions on the journey. Let us prayerfully support one another.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION 2022—The Hawaii Region will be hosting the Y's Men International Convention and Youth Convocation in Honolulu from August 11 to 14, 2022, as YMI celebrates the Centennial Anniversary of Y's Men International. An International Convention (IC) 2022 Committee Meeting was held via Zoom on Saturday, August 15, 2020.

From IP e-Letter

- Consider accepting remote members. A YMI Global Club will have at least five local members, be registered through the corresponding Regional Director in the typical fashion but may accept unlimited virtual members. Virtual members will increase club resources and provide a new dimension to traditional club fellowship. Virtual membership is a great option for potential recruits pressed for time, restricted by geographic proximity to a club, with limited mobility, etc.
