

OUTREACH EFFORT

Ladies of Charity, Nashville
Serving the Most Needy of Our Community Since 1910

1954

As has been the tradition of NACCA at previous in-person conferences, we are happy to partner with the Ladies of Charity Nashville this year! We will be conducting a "Peanut Butter Bonanza" donation drive for the organization throughout the conference until the last day of the event. We ask your support in donating a jar (or some jars) of peanut butter during the conference. If you cannot travel with it, there are a few stores in the area where it can be purchased from once in Nashville. If you need assistance to facilitate your donation, please contact Chea.

Per a spokesperson for the charity, "One thing that is very helpful is peanut butter. It's protein, lasts a while, and when a family is hungry it can be a quick meal."

There will be a table display in the main conference room daily for donation drop offs beginning on Tuesday. We will transport the donations to the organization after the conference adjourns on Friday afternoon. More information on the Ladies of Charity Nashville and the great work they do is available on their website at <https://ladiesofcharitynashville.com/>. A brief summary is below. If you have any questions on the outreach effort, please feel free to contact us at naccafedpanel@gmail.com. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

What is Ladies of Charity Nashville?

Ladies of Charity Nashville is a nonprofit organization that has been serving the most needy of Nashville for over 120 years. Based on the charitable principles of St. Vincent de Paul, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton and St. Louise de Merrillac, our organization works to provide food, clothing, water and gas bill, and rental assistance to those who come to our doors. We are volunteer driven, with only a single, part-time employee. Our funds are raised through the sales we hold in our shop at 2216 State Street. We have two clothing sales, and a Stuff Galore sale.
