Dear Friend,

Alpha Genesis Community Development Corporation (AGCDC) is currently seeking sponsors to support the Day of Resilience: Return, Reconcile, Reunite, and Rejoice Souvenir Booklet. The booklet will give a deeper perspective of the day that we commemorating the 400th anniversary of the Transatlantic Slave Trade in America and the official dedication and ribbon cutting ceremony of the new Harriet Tubman Mural, titled, "Take My Hand." More than 500 guests are expected to attend, and infinitely more are anticipated on social media via live streaming. Online images of the mural have recently gone viral with more than 2 million views. Additionally, thousands of visitors from across the United States have already visited Cambridge, MD to view the mural.

The event is held in collaboration with the Constituency for Africa (CFA), an organization that seeks to build a base of support for Africa in the United States and throughout the African Diaspora. CFA has invited several African Ambassadors from the nations of Mali, Namibia, Toga, and Sierra Leone to host the "Town Hall Meeting on Africa" at Waugh Church, in Cambridge, Maryland.

This souvenir booklet will contain background information on the performers, businesses, organizations, ambassadors and speakers on this historic day. The AGCDC welcomes the support of local businesses and community members to ensure that needed resources: supplies, marketing materials, funding for performers, refreshments/food for volunteers, the youth ambassadors and honored guests, signage/way-finding, and other necessities, are available.

We invite you to be a part of this historic booklet. Please purchase an Ad for your family, business or organization.
