

Our shared housing creates a community of living where people encourage each other to be their best selves and work towards self-improvement.

OUR CLIENTS

-  Drug Court
-  LEAD Recovery Center
-  Urban League
-  Federal Government
-  Dept. of Corrections
-  University & Colleges
-  Veterans Affairs

Our houses are strategically located near services that lead to successful recovery, education, and employment.

WHO WE SERVE

We focus on serving people who have felony drug convictions and are seeking recovery. We also support medically approved treatments for addiction, professional counseling from a peer mentor, and guidance in job searches.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

"Home is where healing begins."

We believe in supporting people with a safe home to live in during their recovery process as everyone deserves a chance to heal, grow, and move forward with their lives.

ABOUT THE FOUNDER

Joe Lam is a Business Owner in various industries of Entertainment, Health & Wellness, Hospitality, and Real Estate. His experience over the years with friends who suffered from drug addictions lead him to the creation of Shining Light Housing as a way to support people in recovery.