

Dr. Lori was born in Anniston, Alabama in 1963 as Lori Annette to both parents with five other siblings. Lori Annette is the name given to her by her mother which means victorious and full of grace. Komeh is also her name but it's her Sierra Leonean Mende tribe name. In 2018 she was restored to her mother's family line in Sierra Leone West Africa and given the name Komeh (Mama Komeh) by 13 of the village Chiefs in a Diaspora Naming and Restoration Ceremony. She also received her citizenship bestowed upon her with passport by the Sierra Leonean President Mada Bio. She is honored to now call herself a Sierra Leonean- American both of which Countries she loves.

Dr. Lori has had a strong military presence her entire life; father, brother, and sisters served and Dr. Lori married into the military family. This lifestyle enabled her to travel throughout the world and experience various cultures that helped expand and shape her ministries. Dr. Lori is retired from Fort Benning Morale, Welfare and Recreation Child and Youth Services Program at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Dr. Lori is married to Overseer Jackie Evans; her husband of 13 years and greatest supporter of the 4 Evamor Inc. vision. He is an ordained minister, retired Army 1st Sgt. (E8) and Deputy Sheriff. He spends his time overseeing 4AmorRadio station and is a radio host. He is also the CFO and program assistant with 4Evamor Inc.

Dr. Lori attended and graduated from Anniston High School in Anniston Alabama, attended Jacksonville State University in Jacksonville Alabama, Beacon College in Columbus Georgia and later Frontline Theological Seminary; Columbus Georgia and received both a bachelor's degree in biblical studies and later received an Honorary Doctorate from Frontline Theological Seminary and The School of the Great Commission Bible College and Seminary; Columbia, South Carolina. Dr. Lori is one of the newest Professors at Frontline Theological Seminary and Frontline Institute of Leadership.

Dr. Lori is the CEO of 4 Evamor Inc; a 501 c3 Nonprofit Faith based organization created to provide relationship support- building and strengthening marriages, single lives and individual personal spiritual esteem.

Dr. Lori is a Federal Contractor and has worked with the State of Georgia for 11 yrs. providing Sexual Health Prevention Education to the Muscogee County adolescent population and has now expanded to implement virtually and on site in the surrounding cities and counties. As a contractor with the Department of Human Services Division of Family and Children Services Personal Responsibility Program Dr. Lori - 4 Evamor Inc has won several awards over the past 11 years; Contractor of the year, Facilitator of the Year and Best Retention Strategists.

Dr. Lori is also the CEO of 4AmorRadio, LLC; a Global Christian internet radio station created to provide opportunities for Christian radio host to launch teaching and preaching programs to reach the Nations with the word of God.

Dr. Lori is a Speaker, Teacher, Workshop Presenter, Host and Activity Presenter for conferences and small group programs. She is an Ordained Minister and Licensed Evangelist of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ with over 26 years of spiritual service in the Kingdom of God; the Church and marketplace.

Dr. Lori is an entrepreneur, writer and storyteller.