"Come to Me, all you who labour and are burdened..."

What does Jesus say will happen if you go to Him when you're tired and worn out? First find your way through the maze and then use the words from that path to fill in the blanks.

Psalm 145 Word-Find

L H A N G E R Y O U G

M E X T O L E E E W S

Find the words from today's Psalm that are in CAPITALS. Use the letters that are left over to fill in the blanks:

What is one of the things this Psalm tells us about God?

I will EXTOL you, O my GOD and King, and I will bless your NAME forever and ever. Every day will I bless YOU, and I will PRAISE your name FOREVER and ever.

The Lord is GRACIOUS and MERCIFUL, SLOW to ANGER and of great KINDNESS. The Lord is GOOD to all and compassionate toward all his works.

Let all your works give you THANKS, O Lord, and let your faithful ones BLESS you. Let them discourse of the GLORY of your KINGDOM and SPEAK of your MIGHT.

The Lord is FAITHFUL in all his WORDS and holy in all his WORKS. The LORD lifts up all who are FALLING and RAISES up the bowed down.

Disciples Yoked To Jesus

True discipleship is a radical call to follow Jesus, man of the Cross. He audaciously invites those who come after him to learn from him, the Master, and carry his yoke, not out of a sense of domination or servitude, but out of submissiveness and engagement with him. Jesus clarifies that his yoke is easy and his burden light so that no disciple would be scared to take his instructions. Thus, we, the little ones, must be yoked to Jesus in order to be productive in discipleship.

Across history, human beings have devised various means of reducing their miseries. They came up with the use of animals for their advancement. They devised a wooden beam and put it on a pair of oxen to help them pull their loads and work in their farms. The two oxen, carrying the yoke, worked together, supported one another and became more productive for their owner.

A weight shared is a weight made easy and light!

Jesus the Master used the yoke and the oxen known to the people to teach them about the road of discipleship. It could be rough, burdensome and overwhelming. No one can walk the way of the cross alone and be productive. Primarily we need to bind ourselves to Jesus and then to one another to succeed. As Jesus invites his disciples to carry their cross and follow him, he does not remove the cross. Therefore, he invites us to be yoked to him to make the road light and bearable. Joined to him, the disciple can carry the cross with ease and joy and reach salvation.

Living in the flesh as a disciple of Jesus is an extra luggage and an obstacle to a union with Jesus. Therefore, St Paul summons the disciples not to live in the flesh but to rise above its obnoxious demands and live by the Spirit. The flesh is insatiable. If you are in doubt, ask the addicts of any type! The weight of the flesh is intolerable. Therefore, let us listen to Jesus as he teaches us: "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me." Be a yoked disciple!

Discípulos Unidos al Yugo de Jesús

El verdadero discipulado es un llamado radical a seguir a Jesús, el hombre de la Cruz, quien nos invita a seguirlo con valentía y aprender de Él, el Maestro, cargando el yugo, no como un signo de dominio o esclavitud, sino como una expresión de entrega, obediencia y unión con Él. Jesús nos asegura que su yugo es suave y su carga ligera, para que ningún discípulo tenga miedo de acoger sus enseñanzas. Por eso, nosotros, los pequeños y humildes, debemos permanecer unidos al yugo de Jesús para dar fruto en el camino del discipulado.

A lo largo de la historia, el ser humano ha buscado distintas maneras de aliviar sus dificultades. Una de ellas fue el uso de animales para realizar los trabajos más pesados. Para ello se ideó un yugo de madera que se colocaba sobre una pareja de bueyes, permitiéndoles tirar juntos de las cargas y trabajar en los campos. Al compartir el mismo yugo, ambos bueyes caminaban unidos, se apoyaban mutuamente y eran más productivos para su dueño. ¡Una carga compartida se vuelve más fácil y ligera!

Jesús, el Maestro, utilizó la imagen del yugo y de los bueyes, tan familiar para la gente de su tiempo, para enseñar el camino del discipulado. Ese camino puede ser difícil, pesado y hasta abrumador. Nadie puede recorrer solo el camino de la cruz y dar verdadero fruto. Antes que nada, necesitamos unirnos a Jesús y, luego, caminar unidos unos con otros para alcanzar el éxito en nuestra misión. Cuando Jesús invita a sus discípulos a cargar con su cruz y seguirlo, no elimina la cruz. Más bien, nos invita a unirnos a Él bajo su yugo para que el camino sea más llevadero. Unidos a Él, el discípulo puede cargar la cruz con serenidad y alegría, y así alcanzar la salvación. Vivir según la carne constituye una carga adicional y un obstáculo para la unión con Jesús. Por eso, san Pablo exhorta a los discípulos a no vivir según la carne, sino a elevarse por encima de sus deseos desordenados y vivir según el Espíritu. La carne nunca se sacia; basta preguntar a quienes sufren cualquier tipo de adicción. El peso de la carne es insostenible. Escuchemos, entonces, las palabras de Jesús cuando nos dice: «Carguen con mi yugo y aprendan de mí». ¡Seamos discípulos unidos al yugo de Cristo!
