

Become a Member Today!

We are a small 501(c)3 nonprofit that seeks to foster community and inspire creative reuse through environmental stewardship, education and community programming, as well as building skills for the underserved, youth, and/or those in need in our community.

Becoming a member of CRM is a great way to support our mission of empowering the community through creativity, education, and sustainability. Your membership helps divert reusable materials from local landfills, expand educational and job training opportunities, and build a more sustainable Springfield.

As a member, you'll enjoy exclusive discounts, special rewards, and access to future events!

Every dollar makes a difference, helping us sustain our programs, provide valuable community resources, and create more opportunities for creativity, learning, and connection.
