Consult HR Partners Announces New Appointment to Nevada and Expansion to Florida

LAS VEGAS, NV -- Well-established Nevada-based Consult HR Partners (“CHRP”), a boutique human resources consultancy practice, announced today their expansion of human resources services and solutions by opening a new office in Sarasota, Florida supporting the entire state.

Owner and founder Jennifer Martinez brought together a team of collaborative and highly regarded HR professionals who have worked across the public, private, and non-profit sectors including healthcare, city government, real estate, entertainment, online retail, technology, gaming, restaurants, and hospitality, many on a global level.

The team at CHRP have decades of experience working with companies that are start-up, fast growing, and oftentimes very active with mergers and acquisitions. This has prepared them to guide and support organizations without in-house HR or with limited in-house HR, and they are often engaged to augment an existing HR team that may not have the resources or subject matter expertise.

CHRP consultants are sought after to provide their insights on the trending shifts in HR strategy, culture, and leadership in support of the evolving workforce. They are excited to bring their knowledge and customized approach to companies across Florida, especially in the Sarasota, Tampa, and Orlando areas. Clients engage with the CHRP consultants for their expertise with process and system design, improvements across the employee HR lifecycle, organizational design, compensation and benefits, human capital management systems, employee and labor relations, talent management, policy development and compliance training, culture development, and employee engagement.

Martinez said, “After serving in senior HR leadership roles for more than 25 years, I saw an important need for outsourced HR advisory support to enable companies to focus on their core business including growth, bottom-line results, and employee engagement. With experienced teams now in both Nevada and Florida, we are well-equipped to provide all the services and solutions companies need without the inherent fully-loaded costs of hiring full-time staff.”

Martinez is pleased to announce the addition of the newest team member, Kristen Nazario, who is joining as a Principal Consultant and is based in Las Vegas, Nevada. Kristen is a business minded HR professional with operational and strategic experience working for dynamic companies experiencing fast growth. She most recently served as Vice President, Human Resources with a global gaming company focusing on HR transformation activities. Kristen graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology and a Master of Arts in Human Resources and Industrial Relations from top-ranked Carlson School of Management, Industrial Relations Center.
