CONGREGATIONAL CONVERSATIONS FOR OUR LOCAL CHURCH PROFILE

Our Local Church Profile writing team has been quietly and persistently working all fall in the midst of the many events and activities in the life of our church. Their work continues in the New Year with a series of gatherings to seek the discernment and wisdom of our congregation to give shape and depth to the story that our profile will tell to potential candidates in our Search for a new Settled Pastor. In the weeks leading up to Lent we are scheduling a few meetings to focus on particular sections of the profile:

- February 1st Coffee Hour Conversation focused on our Neighbor ("Who Is Our Neighbor?"). This section of the profile explores the community around us: its dreams, challenges, demographics, and opportunities as well as our engagement with it.
- February ? We'll be looking for a weekend afternoon or evening when we can gather around a meal (pizza) to draw on the insights from the previous conversations as we discern God's future for our church and the kind of pastor we need to partner with us into that future.
- We'll also be exploring some possible focus groups (eg church school families) to get their insights and aspirations.

This is some of our most essential interim time work and your presence and perspective is crucial to helping our church be healthy, faithful, effective and impactful into its future. We'll aim to have these sessions include ZOOM for those folks who enjoy warmer climes in our winter months.

Questions about these focus meetings? Please see Rev Don any Sunday after worship.

Pastor's Ponderings

The Sermon on the Mount

I don't know if you have ever had a chance to see the TV series "The Chosen". It is one more of many attempts to bring the Gospel and story of Jesus to life on screen. I believe they do a fairly solid job of portraying the teachings and character of Jesus. The Sermon on the Mount is featured as part of the series. And it shows Jesus wrestling, with Matthew's help, as he tries to synthesize his teachings into one succinct and powerful presentation.

The TV show does a decent job of capturing the message we find in the Gospel of Matthew. The Sermon on the Mount captures the heart of Jesus and the heart of his teachings. And the words can be challenging to us. Actually, that was the whole point. Jesus is trying to break us out of our mindsets to perceive a larger world and way of God's love; love that is both our hardest work and our deepest fulfillment.

Too often we read these words as comforting, and parts of the Beatitudes can come across that way. However, Jesus deeper message challenges us to model our lives on His.

We'll be exploring portions of this sermon as we bring the Epiphany Season to a close in the final weeks of February. You can find the whole Sermon on the Mount in Matthew 5-7.

Looking Ahead to Lent

It seems like Christmas was just yesterday. And I know if we blink it will be Easter. (And as yet another cold snap has me shivering, I am ready for the promise of warmth and rebirth). A colleague of mine recommended a book by Margaret Wheatley. It is entitled "PERSEVERANCE" Margaret Wheatley is a sociologist, historian, anthropologist and deeply appreciated speaker and author. She has particularly focused on how people and organizations can move faithfully through the challenges and opportunities of the era towards a healthier world.

An intro to this book offers: "Margaret Wheatley offers guidance to people everywhere for how to persevere through challenges in their personal lives, with their families, at their workplaces, in their communities, and in their efforts to make a better world."

Perseverance is a day-by-day decision not to give up. Wheatley does not offer the usual feel-good, rah-rah messages. Instead, she focuses on the situations, feelings, and challenges that can, over time, cause us to lose heart or lose our way. When we feel lost, overwhelmed, betrayed or exhausted, we need to know we have a choice for how we respond."

Margaret Wheatley bases the theme of her book on a teaching from the Hopi Native American Elders teachings. You can find this online in various forms. This is the one Wheatley uses:

From the Hopi Elders To my fellow swimmers.

There is a river flowing now very fast.
It is so great and swift and there are those who will be afraid.
They will try to hold on to the shore. They will feel that they are being torn apart and will suffer greatly
Know that the river has its destination.
The elders say we must let go of the shore;
Push off into the middle of the river,
Keep our eyes open and our heads above water.
And I say,
See who is in there with you and celebrate.
At this time in history we are to take nothing personally.
Least of all, ourselves.
For the moment that we do,
our spiritual growth and journey comes to a halt.
The time of the lone wolf is over.
Gather yourselves.
Banish the word "struggle" from your attitude and vocabulary.
All that we do now must be done in a sacred manner and in celebration.
For We are the ones we have been waiting for.

I will be exploring insights from the chapters of this book as we seek God's Word and Wisdom through our worship themes and preaching this Lenten Season. You are welcome to pick up the book online or at a local bookstore if you want to delve more deeply into her insights. And, at her website, you can find more information and a link to a weekly emailing with excerpts from the book. Look for it here:

Many Thanks... If you had the chance to join us for the Rev. Dr Martin Luther King, Jr. celebration at our church you are probably still glowing from the experience. The music, the words, the prayers, the dance was all so deeply moving. The appreciation I heard was universal in its enthusiasm. And I think we all recognized how much we needed to hear a message of hope and challenge in such a time as this. I am also so appreciative of everyone who helped out with hospitality. The room looked wonderful. The food was plentiful and delicious. And the warm greeting you all shared with our visitors was so representative of our Oasis of Caring and Joy; you truly and fully embodied that. Thanks to all of you who helped host that day. And to all of you who donated baked goods. And to those who set up tables and put them away. For those who handed out bulletins and helped people with the elevator. For those who offered coffee and snacks so that the joy of worship upstairs could continue in the caring of fellowship downstairs. For those who removed the trash. And those who cleared the snow. (And a particular note to Martha who was the hub of coordination and to Dave who handled the sound system elegantly.)

THANK YOU!

Rev Don

Back on Route 66: Our Road Trip Through the Books of the Bible

We're excited to be back on the road with our Route 66 adventure—journeying through all 66 books of the Bible together! Each Sunday morning at 9:45 a.m. in Daggett Lounge, our children gather for an engaging, age-appropriate exploration of Scripture designed to help them see the big story of God's love from Genesis to Revelation.

As we prepare lessons, activities, and materials each week, it's incredibly helpful to know when a child will be absent. Parents, please let Sharilyn or Warna know if your child will be unable to attend. Your communication supports our planning and ensures we're ready to welcome every traveler on the journey.

We're looking forward to another meaningful season on Route 66—full of discovery, connection, and joy.

We are in search of a volunteer who has calligraphy skills or excellent handwriting. Please contact Kathy in the Church office or any member of the committee (Rich and Julie Goss, Jan Bisio, Heather Bonfilio, Bruce Carpenter, Judy Holland and Keith Darling). ### UPDATES & OUTCOMES

'THE HEARTBEAT INITIATIVE'

Allison Darling returned to Kisumu, Kenya between January 12-25, 2026 to oversee a Heartbeat Initiative CPR training event for 400 delegates. Her Dad, Keith, accompanied Allison to serve as a member of the training team.

Through her college work this year, Allison Darling, was able to provide volunteer service in Kisumu, Kenya at several community health centers and hospital. During her work she realized that across Kenya, police officers, firefighters, and community health providers are often the first to arrive at emergency scenes, yet few have access to CPR training. Without these lifesaving skills preventable deaths occur every day. To address this concern, Allison created *The Heartbeat Initiative to address the need. The program not only builds individual skills, but it also strengthens the entire emergency response system. By empowering frontline responders, they are reducing time to first intervention, increasing survival rates, and fostering collaboration between community members and hospitals.

Allison, as founder of the Initiative, has been raising funds for this and future events. She presented the focus of the Initiative and goal of providing CPR training events to the Mission Committee in November. The Mission Committee was impressed with the overall project plan to achieve the first training event. On behalf of Central Congregational Church, we agreed to contribute a financial gift of $1500 from our Board Designated Fund to help achieve a $17,000 budget for this event. Personal donations in the amount of $180 have recently been received from church members and mailed to the fund. Contributions are still welcomed and gratefully received. Make your check payable to Central Congregational Church and add "Heartbeat Initiative" in the memo line.

Thanks for supporting this new mission initiative in Kisumu Kenja. Pray for Allison as she works to fulfill "The Heartbeat Initiative" goal of achieving 'Non-Profit Organization' status and the vision to establish CPR training in Kenya.

YEAR-ROUND MISSIONS

Lenore's Pantry NEW 'Wish List': Cereal, Condiments (ketchup, mustard, salad dressing, BBQ sauce), Tuna Fish, Pasta, Pasta Sauce, Individual bags of chips, individual bags of cookies, Ramen noodles, Progresso Soup. "Please keep in mind anything you have in your cupboards would be appreciated in our pantry!" Steve Berdos, Lenore's Pantry

Our Shriner's Hospital Aluminum Tab Collection - If you're not involved, join our regular contributors by saving the tabs from beverage cans and dropping them into the labeled round containers on the counter outside the church office or the container on the windowsill in the entry to the CE building. The sole focus of the Foundation is the operation of a liberal arts and vocational school. Currently the Foundation is running a grammar school for 125 children in preschool through eighth grade. Every child receives a nutritious meal in addition to a free education.
