Description

This thing is legendary! It's not just a slogan. It's why the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo is the most authentic western lifestyle experience anywhere - since 1896. It's exciting, it's fun, it's 23 days of what makes Fort Worth the greatest city in Texas.

Rodeo: The excitement starts with the Best of the West Ranch Rodeo and wraps up with the nail-biting finals of the FWSSR PRORODEO Tournament. In between, we've got more fun with the Best of Mexico Celebración, Cowboys of Color Rodeo, Bulls Night Out PRCA Xtreme Bull Riding, and the Texas Champions Challenge. All of this unfolds within the magnificent Dickies Arena, where the party never stops, and every seat offers an exceptional view. Rodeo during the legendary Fort Worth Stock Show will make an epic return to the amazing Dickies Arena. Whether it's traditional rodeo with a tournament twist, Xtreme Bull Riding, the colorful Best of Mexico Celebración, the diversity of the Cowboys of Color Rodeo, the Best of the West Ranch Rodeo, or the Texas Champions Challenge, there are 25 rodeo performances that will bring out your inner cowboy or cowgirl.

Family Fun: Entertainment and educational options for kids are king at the legendary Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo are almost endless. What kid doesn't want to experience the western way of life up close and personal? Some of the wonderful things for your child to experience at the Stock Show are the Milking Parlor and Children's Barnyard, petting zoo and pony rides, carnival midway.

All-Western Parade: January 17: Line up along downtown Fort Worth for the annual parade with marching bands, floats and more than 2,000 horses including the gorgeous and massive Budweiser Clydesdales. Watch for free from anywhere along the route or get reserved seating for $15 (in front on the convention center) or $25 (at Sundance Square where the face painters and balloon artists will be). These tickets also get you free general admission to the Stock Show grounds on any day.

Kids Gone Wild Day: February 1: Kids Gone Wild teaches kids not just about nature, but the important role ranchers play in managing natural resources - soil, plants and water - to benefit both livestock and wildlife. The Texas Wildlife Association is a statewide membership organization that serves Texas wildlife and its habitat, while protecting property rights, hunting heritage, and the conservation efforts of those who value and steward wildlife resources.

Mooseum Experience: With your grounds admission to the festival, you also get free admission to three local museums: Fort Worth Museum of Science and History (FWMSH), Cattle Raisers Museum (located on the second floor of the FWMSH), and the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame. Plus, general admission to this festival is free to members of the National Cowgirl Museum, Fort Worth Museum of Science and History, Cattle Raisers Museum and the Fort Worth Botanical Garden. Simply present your membership card at any Stock Show gate.
