Trick-or-Treat Safety Tips

> Trick-or-treat night is one of the most fun evenings of the year for kids. "Unfortunately, it is also one of the busiest nights of the year for emergency departments, due to accidents, injuries and ingestions," says Nathan Bexfield, M.D., a pediatrician at University of Utah Health Care.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention offers these tips to help your kids stay safe from head to toe.

Parents should check candy and allow kids to eat only factory-wrapped treats.

Hem or pin up long costumes so they aren't a tripping hazard.

Use non-toxic makeup instead of a mask so child's vision is not limited.

Add reflective strips to costumes and use flashlights or glow sticks so a child can be easily seen in the dark.

Swords, wands and pointed costume accessories should be kept short and soft to avoid injury.

Buddy up! Kids should trick-or-treat with parents or friends, never alone. Only approach well-lit homes in familiar neighborhoods.

Dear Residents,

Please be advised the September Board of Director Meetings scheduled for September 17, 2026, has been canceled until further notice.

On the advice of legal counsel, these meetings are being postponed due to pending legal matters. We will provide updates regarding the rescheduling of the meetings as soon as it is legally appropriate to do so.

The Board will continue to process requests for tree removals, concerns and architectural requests as received.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Sincerely,

WJV Board of Directors

Dear Windjammer Village Owners,

The Windjammer Village Board of Directors appreciates the many owners who have contacted us, attended meetings, visited the office, and shared their thoughts and support regarding the transition to Waccamaw Management.

We recognize that owners may have questions or differing views about decisions affecting our community. The Board respects every owner's right to seek information, express concerns, and participate in Association governance. In light of the recent petition and related materials circulated throughout the community, the Board believes it is important to provide clear and complete information regarding the matters being discussed.

Professional Management and Waccamaw Management

The Board's decision to retain Waccamaw Management was made after careful consideration of Windjammer Village's operational, financial, insurance, governance, compliance, and long-term infrastructure needs. The Board also sought appropriate legal and professional guidance in making this decision.

Waccamaw Management was not hired to radically change Windjammer Village, its character, or the sense of community that owners value. Rather, Waccamaw was retained to provide professional management support and help the Association operate with increased consistency, transparency, organization, and accountability.

Windjammer Village is a premier community. The Board believes it both needs and deserves professional systems that support accurate financial administration, dependable recordkeeping, effective owner communication, compliance with governing requirements, and thoughtful planning for the future.

Some owners have asked why the Waccamaw agreement was not announced at the August 20 monthly meeting. This was an intentional decision. Approximately 14 owners attended that meeting, while the Association includes 389 members. Rather than share this important information with a small group first and have other owners receive it later through informal channels, the Board chose to communicate directly with the entire membership at the same time.

The Board believed that approach was the fairest and most transparent way to communicate a decision affecting the whole community.

Assessments and POA Dues

The Board also wants to directly address the statement that retaining Waccamaw Management will result in another increase in POA dues. The Waccamaw Management agreement does not itself create or require an additional assessment increase.

The recent assessment increase was not caused by Waccamaw Management. Windjammer Village operated for several years without an assessment increase while costs for insurance, maintenance, operations, repairs, and infrastructure continued to rise. In addition, significant projects and repairs have affected the Association's reserve funds.

The Board's responsibility is to manage Association resources prudently, control unnecessary expenses, and plan responsibly for the community's ongoing financial and maintenance needs. Any future budget or assessment decisions will be evaluated based on the Association's actual obligations and communicated to the membership in accordance with the governing documents and applicable requirements.

It is also important to distinguish between the paving project and professional management services:

- The paving project is a capital and infrastructure project.
- Waccamaw Management is an operational expense for professional management services.

These are separate expenditures serving different purposes. Combining them into one figure can create an inaccurate impression of how Association funds are being used.

The Paving Project

The Board is aware that recent materials have characterized the paving project as a decision to retain an unlicensed contractor and commit approximately $250,000 without verification. The Board believes that characterization does not provide the complete context.

PowerHouse Paving provided contractor licensing and insurance documentation to the Board. A subsequent issue arose concerning the specific South Carolina license classification required for this type of work. Once that issue became known, the project was paused.

The Board has provided updates about the paving project during monthly meetings and will continue to share material updates as information becomes available. The Board and the project liaison also spoke with PowerHouse Paving in late August. The company has indicated that it remains committed to completing the contracted scope of work, and its owner is scheduled to continue the South Carolina licensing examination process in mid-September.

The Board will continue to monitor this matter carefully and take appropriate steps to protect the interests of Windjammer Village and its owners.

The Petition Process

The Board respects every owner's right to participate in the petition process. At the same time, it is important that all owners understand that signing a petition does not itself remove the Board.

The Windjammer Village Bylaws establish a specific procedure for the removal of Directors, including a vote of the membership. Any removal, vacancy, or election process must be conducted in accordance with the Association's governing documents and applicable law.

The Board encourages every owner to review the available information carefully and make informed decisions based on complete and accurate facts.

Open Communication

The Board understands that there is considerable discussion within the community. We encourage owners with questions about Waccamaw Management, the paving project, assessments, reserves, budgets, or any other Association matter to contact the Board directly.

We would prefer to answer questions openly and directly rather than have owners rely on information that may be incomplete, misunderstood, or inaccurate. A Town Hall meeting with Waccamaw Management is also being planned so that owners can hear directly from the management team, learn more about its role, and ask questions. The date and time will be announced once finalized.

The Board recognizes that some owners may disagree with the decision to engage professional management. We respect those views. However, the Board must make decisions it believes are in the best interests of the Association, including decisions that address longstanding operational and financial needs, reduce avoidable risk, improve communication, and promote responsible stewardship of the community.

Our goal is, and has always been, to serve Windjammer Village in good faith, with professionalism, transparency, and respect for every owner.

Sincerely,

The Windjammer Village Board of Directors

Based on guidance from our attorney, retained to represent and protect the interests of the entire community, residents may call for a special meeting; however, the Windjammer Village Board of Directors retains full authority over the meeting process. Waccamaw Management will manage WJV meetings going forward, securing the integrity of the WJV bylaws. The WJV BOD has forwarded the meeting information to Waccamaw to process as soon as possible. The election ballot received by WJV residents today does not comply with WJV bylaws making the entire ballot process invalid.

Thank you,

The Board of Directors

Dear Windjammer Owners,

We're excited to begin working with Windjammer and look forward to getting to know the community.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

On Friday, September 11th we had an “End of Summer” gathering at the pier. A great crowd showed up to enjoy food provided by 3 food truck vendors and play some cornhole while enjoying the good weather.

Then Saturday, September 12th we had our 6th Annual Blood Mary Mixoff at the pier. We had 4 participants with approximately 40 people doing the tasting. After the first vote we had to have a taste off between 2 of the mixtures and after the second tasting the votes were tallied and the winner was determined to be yours truly, Page Kardack (Lexington), with our favorite 2nd place gal, Rene Zialkowski (Brunswick), coming second!

Book Club met on September 16th and discussed the month’s book, Dark Witch by Nora Roberts and enjoyed a “witches stew”. The book for the meeting on October 21st is Peg Unhinged by Teri M. Brown and Teri will be our special guest at the meeting. We meet Every 3rd Wednesday of the month, and anyone is welcome to jump in at any time! We’d love to have you join us!

Finally, the Luau was held on September 19th and thankfully we set things up inside because the weather was not in our favor this year. However, the rain didn’t put a damper on things and we had approximately 90 people attend with lots of yummy food to enjoy! Thank you everyone who helped make this event a success and to those that helped clean up afterwards! You all are the best!
