Host, Tim Foust of Home Free

The red carpet event will be hosted by Tim Foust of the hit group Home Free, and Melissa Lancaster who is an award winning audio engineer and owner of Durant Studios.

Foust says, “It has been a thrill to see a cappella music go from underground to mainstream over the last couple of decades, and it continues to be an honor to be a part of it. I look forward to helping shine an even broader and brighter spotlight on this amazing artform.”

The evening will highlight many influential personalities within the a cappella community and feature up to 15 performances. The first three performing groups to be announced for the event on May 19th include Voices of Lee of Lee University (Cleveland, TN), Vintage Mix (Milwaukee, WI), Committed (Huntsville, AL), Vocal Union (Nashville), and more to be announced. More performers and presenters will be announced in the coming weeks.

Cohost, Melissa Lancaster

Cohost Melissa Lancaster said, “Having grown up in the a cappella music world it’s always a thrill for me to hear new groups perform. I am so pumped to host this award show and I can’t wait to see all of the talent this special night will bring.”

Performers for the evening are primarily being selected from the final nominee list. The categories include: Lifetime Achievement, Entertainer, Female Vocalist, Male Vocalist, Record (album), Beatboxer/Percussionist, Video, Internet Radio/Podcast, Bassist, Pop Group, Religious Group, Barbershop Group, and much more.

The founder of the A Cappella Music Awards, Nathan Hunnicutt says, “The A Cappella Music Awards is a worldwide event focused primarily on all major independent music groups. We expect this event to open a lot of eyes to this growing genre, especially since voting was opened up to the general public.”
