

Hope Food Pantry Code of Conduct

Hope Food Pantry is run entirely by volunteers.

It is our honor to serve you.

To ensure a positive experience and for the safety of everyone,
the following rules must be followed.

Anyone who does not behave in accordance with these rules will be asked to leave the pantry without shopping.

Numbers will be handed out in numerical order at 7:45.

You must be physically present to have a place in line.

No one can save a place in line for someone else.

Everyone at Hope Food Pantry will treat each other with respect.

No pushing or elbowing will be tolerated.

All guests will take only the number of items as indicated by the volunteers.

Reentry to the pantry after shopping is not permitted.
