

Hockey player
Adventure seeker
Oncology PA
Professor

Professor Moini is the founder of 2MPOWER!

She is board certified through the National Commission on the Certification of Physician Assistants (NCCPA), licensed as a Physician Assistant by the State of California, licensed as a Registered Dietitian through the Commission on Dietetic Registration and is board certified through the National Board of Nutrition Support. As a leader in innovative Physician Assistant education and medical care she has a variety of skills to offer any medical or academic institution interested in enriching their program, medical practice and/or patient care. Her areas of expertise and experience include but are not limited to: Clinical PA practice with specialization in hematology/oncology; Founding PA Program Director; Medical Educator; Social Justice & Patient Advocate; ARC-PA Accreditation; Medical Curriculum Developer with specialization in medical nutrition therapy and social medicine; Innovative Student-Centered Educator; Clinical Dietitian with specialization and board certification in nutrition support.

Her professional experience includes appointments as:

1. Hematology/Oncology PA Chan Soon-Shiong Institute for Medicine (2017 – present)
2. Lecturer Yale School of Medicine Online PA Program (2019 – present)
3. Founding PA Program Director & Assistant Prof. Charles R. Drew University (2014-2019)
4. Educational Coordinator & Clinical Asst. Prof. Quinnipiac University PA Program (2010-2014); Assistant Prof. Quinnipiac University Department of Medical Sciences (2010-2014)
5. Clinical Registered Dietitian and Certified Nutrition Support Clinician (1995 – present)

She has extensive service as a PA in a number of clinical settings, with an area of specialty in Hematology/Oncology and Blood & Marrow Transplantation. Moini holds a Master of Health Science Physician Assistant degree, Bachelor of Science in Clinical Nutrition and is a Registered Dietitian and Certified Nutrition Support Clinician (CNSC).

Moini believes in living a balanced life. She loves to get outside and see the world from wheels (either on skates, a skateboard or on a beach cruiser!). Moini was a member of the U.S. Inline Hockey Team and competed at several World Inline Hockey tournaments. She also has a nationally registered therapy dog named Luci that is an ambassador for her breed. Luci, an American Staffordshire terrier, specializes in working with children with learning challenges and is a perfect skating companion along the boardwalk in Hermosa Beach!