Dr. Shabaik is a family medicine physician by profession with clinical interests in women's health and community medicine. She completed her medical school training at the University of California, San Diego and residency at Long Beach Memorial Medical Center in Long Beach, CA. After graduating from residency, Dr. Shabaik has worked at a number of practices, but finds the most fulfilling and gratifying patient-provider relationships serving patients at community clinics. She plans to build on her commitment to the underserved by teaching and mentoring the next generation of healthcare leaders committed to social justice and wellness promotion. Outside of clinical work you can find Dr. Shabaik running after her sons, baking, reading, and exploring California (via metro and bike when time permits).
