Fiddlehead IPA – 6.2% ABV $9.50

A well-balanced IPA from Vermont that's smooth, citrusy, and just hoppy enough. Like a jam band on a boat – laid-back but full of surprises.

Maine Beer Company “Lunch” – 7.0% ABV $12.00

A celebrated West Coast-style IPA from Maine. Named after a finback whale, not your midday sandwich.

Notch Left of the Dial Session IPA – 4.3% ABV $6.00

Local and loyal. This Salem-brewed session IPA packs full flavor without the knockout punch. Keep sipping, stay upright.

Red Stripe (Jamaica) – 4.7% ABV $6.00

Bright, crisp lager with a touch of island nostalgia. The stubby bottle alone is enough to make you hum reggae tunes.

Corona Extra – 4.6% ABV $6.50

Light, breezy, and always better with a lime. Pairs perfectly with sunshine and zero plans.

Budweiser (“Bud Heavy”) – 5.0% ABV $6.00

For the loyalists. This classic lager hasn't changed – and neither have you. Still full-bodied. Still not light.

Bud Light – 4.2% ABV $6.00

All the Bud vibes, just... lighter.

Miller Lite – 4.2% ABV $6.00

Clean, crisp, and refreshingly less drama. It's been making beer drinkers feel “less full” since disco was a thing.

Michelob Ultra – 4.2% ABV $6.50

Fitness-forward folks, this one is for you. Low-carb, light-bodied, and smooth – like a downward dog in a cooler.

Casillero del Diablo - Cabernet Sauvignon · Josh Chardonnay · Baron Fini Pinot Grigio $14.00

Mimosa 14.50
