

2022 Robert O. Briggs Music Scholarship

Eligibility & Application Instructions

A $500 competitive scholarship, paid as a one-time award, is available for 2022. Robert (“Bob”) Briggs spent most of his 80 years breathing life into instruments. Briggs, a long-time director of the University of California Marching Band, also taught at Armijo High School. He was the Founding Director of the Solano Winds Community Concert Band. A revered conductor whose career in music spanned more than six decades, Briggs established his fund as a way to support his philanthropic commitment to aspiring musicians. His memory and legacy are honored by awarding scholarships in his name, administered by Solano Winds Community Concert Band, and funded by the R. O. Briggs Endowment for Solano Winds Community Concert Band, a component fund of the Solano Community Foundation.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

1. Must be a graduating senior attending a Napa County or Solano County High School and/or a current Napa-Solano County resident, and is currently an active performing musician in their school, and/or community.
2. Has achieved a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 during their senior year, verified with an Official Grade Transcript.
3. Plans to pursue a Bachelor degree in music.
