

World Affairs Council of Miami

Building Miami's First Independent Think Tank

WHAT WE DO

Connecting Miami with the World

With around 100 countries diplomatically and commercially represented, South Florida is uniquely suited for a thriving international affairs sector. Despite this, greater Miami has no think tanks outside of academia to serve as independent voices on policy matters.

Since 2021, the World Affairs Council of Miami has met this market opportunity through the following non-partisan initiatives:

- Speaker Series - hosting publicly accessible talks with policy experts
- Diplomatic Programs - connecting our city with Miami and D.C.-based diplomats
- Youth Education - helping young Miamians become future U.S. diplomats
- Community Briefings - building private events for local leaders and policy-makers

How Can You Help?

Your donation or sponsorship advances access to global education and helps build a world-class center on foreign affairs by and for Miami.

WHO WE ARE

Locally Engaged

Founded in 2021, the World Affairs Council of Miami is an independent and nonpartisan 501(c)(3) nonprofit that serves as Miami's center for public education on world affairs.

Globally Connected

As a member of the World Affairs Councils of America—the country's oldest and largest network of foreign affairs nonprofits—our brand is trusted nationwide and internationally.

Partners Have Included

U.S. Dept. of State, NATO, United Nations, CSIS, German Marshall Fund, Middle East Institute, JP Morgan Bank, Council of the Americas, MDC, FIU, UM, Concordia Summit, Miami Dade County, Governments of Sweden, Germany, France, UK, Canada, Ireland, Israel, Netherlands, Turkey, Qatar, Taiwan, Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Mexico.

TO ENHANCE ACCESS TO
HIGH QUALITY INFORMATION
ON WORLD AFFAIRS