The Foster Kidd Foundation Hosts Kick-Off for Annual Fundraising Weekend
Announces BMW North America as Title Sponsor

DALLAS – Apr 10, 2019 – The Foster Kidd Foundation announced today they will host a kick-off VIP reception on Thursday, June 6, 2019, for its annual fundraising weekend. The charity weekend takes place June 6 through June 10, 2019 and will benefit Paul Quinn College, The First Tee of Greater Dallas, Under 1 Roof and other North Texas Charities. Congressman Marc Veasey, 33rd Congressional District and Tonya Veasey (Paul Quinn College, Class of 1999) are this year's Honorary Chairs for the Foundation Charity Events.

The kick-off on June 6th will bring together community, nonprofit and higher education leaders, plus event sponsors to gear up for the big charity weekend. Speakers include title sponsor Keisha Townsend, Marketing Executive for BMW North America and Mrs. Verna Jones, Founder of (Under 1 Roof), which is our 2019 Community Service Awardee. Many fun events and activities are lined up for the charity weekend including a gala, entertainment and the popular scramble golf tournament held at the Hackberry Creek Country Club.

Media representatives are invited to the reception to learn more about the Foundation's impact in supporting local community and nonprofit organizations, junior golf programs and providing financial assistance to college students. Event organizers, sponsors and board members will be on hand for interviews.

WHAT: The Foster Kidd Foundation Annual Fundraising Weekend Kick-Off VIP Reception

WHEN: Thursday, June 6 from 7-11 P.M.
