Our Staff Editors and Articles Editors have been hard at work editing the three professional articles and three student comments which will be included in Volume XVIII, Book 1. Additionally, we will be publishing a student comment in our online codicil this year.

Our CLE will be held February 20, 2026. The CLE will be held at Texas Tech School of Law and online via Zoom. We will host eight speakers from across the United States, making this event a top-notch professional and academic experience. We are continuing our tradition of allowing former EPJ members to attend at no cost. Check out our website for registration!
