ABOUT US

Material expertise. Disciplined manufacturing. Reliable project supply.

Shrinath Stones is a granite slab manufacturing and project supply company built around material knowledge, disciplined processing, and dependable delivery. From natural blocks to finished surfaces, our journey is defined by a focused understanding of stone and the requirements of professional buyers.

Across every stage—selection, cutting, finishing, and inspection—we apply the same attention to detail and respect for the material. The result is consistent quality, practical solutions, and long-term partnerships on projects that stand the test of time.
