Final Day Catch Wins Grand Prize for LoPresti
“It was meant to happen.”

For 32-year-old Amy LoPresti of Rochester, fishing in her first fishing derby ever, it was like a dream come true. Fishing on Sunday morning, Sept. 1, the final day of the Fall Lake Ontario Counties Trout and Salmon Derby, she grabbed ahold of a fishing rod that had a big fish on it while trolling off Point Breeze and the Oak Orchard River.

Twenty minutes later, she was looking at the biggest salmon that she's ever seen, let alone caught – a 33-pound, 3-ounce Chinook that took over the lead for the $20,000 Grand Prize. She became the winner four hours later when the derby ended at 1 p.m.

It started with a family trip aboard her father-in-law's 10-Meter Trojan named “Maverick” with Capt. Chris LoPresti of Spencerport. Amy's husband Chris LoPresti, Jr. and her three kids Brayden, Rayna, and Brett were all on board as they started fishing. However, the trip almost ended early.

“We had the three kids along (from ages 3 to 9) and I realized that we had forgotten the snacks,” she said at the awards ceremony Labor Day at Riley's Bar and Grill in North Rose. “I panicked. I said to my husband that we will have to go in. That was when I found some packs of sunflower seeds, and it was enough to satisfy their hunger for a bit.” Shortly after that, the rod went off and set the stage for the last-minute heroics.

The fish hit about 8:50 a.m. while they trolled a Hawk's Custom snowflake spoon in 150 feet of water off the pump house. The lucky spoon was 60 feet down on a downrigger. Twenty minutes

Keppen Wins Grand Prize with Big King the Final Weekend
“It ain't over till it's over!”

That Yogi Berra quote was most appropriate for this year's Summer Lake Ontario Counties (LOC) Trout and Salmon Derby that ended July 27. In the end, it was Larry Keppen of Marion, NY catching a monster 32-pound, 13-ounce king salmon the final weekend of the derby to win the $15,000 Grand Prize, along with another $1,000 for top salmon for the week.

“We were fishing out in front of Braddock Bay in 100 to 120 feet of water, running a 300-foot copper line rigged with a Salmon Candy flasher and a Sweet Pea Live A-Tom-Mik fly when the fish hit at 7:30 a.m.,” said an excited Keppen at the awards ceremony held at Riley's Bar and Grill in North Rose. He was fishing with his father Larry Keppen of Rochester out of their 22-foot Penn Yan named Gone Fishin.

“The water was a bit messed up after high winds on Friday,” continued Keppen. “Some charter friends of mine were heading off-shore to find more stable water, but I told them I was going to check the inside water first. We found 46 degrees down 80-foot and we put our rods out. At 7:30 a.m., the big king hit and ripped out 817-feet of line. We pulled the throttle back and dad cleared the lines because we only had 1,000 feet of line on the reel.” This was the second biggest king Keppen has ever caught. Their first biggest was during the old ESLO days when he weighed in a 33-pound, 6-ounce salmon.

Meanwhile, Bradley Evans of Arlington, Texas had been sitting on pins and needles waiting for the end of the derby. Only July 18, he was fishing with his nephew Justin Evans of Bangor, Pa. on his

LOC FAQ

Signing up for the Derby- There are two ways, online at www.loc.org and at the Weigh-in and Registration outlets listed on page 2. You must register prior to 7AM the day you are fishing and EVERYONE on the boat MUST be registered.

Youths – 10 to 15 years old at time of entry. There is no separate youth division, all entrants compete for the same prizes but the Youth entry is half price. There is an additional youth award (Trophy) for the largest fish entered in each division. Youth winners are not required to attend the Awards Ceremony UNLESS they are Grand Prize, first or second placed division winners. If youths do not attend the awards ceremony, they can pick up their trophy at the weigh station they weighed their fish. Youths under the age of 10 can be on the boat but the number of rods fished can only be fished for the number of registered entrants on the boat.

Weigh In – Weigh in must happen the day the fish is caught, there is NO WEIGH IN THE FOLLOWING DAY. Maximum weigh in station hours are 9am to 8pm but weigh in stations have different closing times and they can vary throughout the week. Be sure a picture of the fish is taken when it is first placed on the scale.

When you arrive at the weigh in station, keep your fish in the cooler, please don't drag it through the store. If you see the scale hanging you can place your cooler underneath the scale but do NOT place your fish on the scale until told to do so. Do not place live fish on the scale, it can damage the scale. You must have your LOC Registration/Invoice on your person to present to the weigh master. This includes everyone that was on the boat.

Problems during weigh in - If there is a problem at weigh-in, make sure you KEEP YOUR FISH. Cutting up/destroying your fish will result in immediate disqualification. The weigh in station will record the weight and a Derby Representative will check the fish ASAP.

Pictures of your catch – We love great pictures of your catch and we post them on Facebook and our website. The sooner you take pictures the better the fish looks. Please try and hold your fish sideways and a little in front of your body, but not too far out in front, both need to be in focus.

Leaderboard – The leaderboard for the derby is located at <http://loc.org/Leaderboard.html>. The leaderboard is updated in real time so if you don't see your entry after a few hours or if any of your information is incorrect please check with your weigh in station or call the office at 315-333-5213.

Fish Weigh in Form. Please print legibly! Make sure you write down current address, phone number etc. We utilize information from this form to issue checks and incomplete/incorrect information can delay payment.

You won, now what? – Congratulations, if you are Grand Prize, first or second place you and/or your witness and fish MUST be at the awards ceremony.

The 2026 Awards Ceremonies will be held at Rileys Bar & Grill, 9660 Ridge Road, North Rose. On the final day of each derby, fishing ends at 1:00 pm. You need to be at the awards ceremony by 3:00 pm for pictures and interviews. The awards ceremony will commence immediately following.

You will get paid and receive your trophy. Tax information will be secured and you will get photographed and submit your story to the media. We will feed you pizza and wings. It's a good time!

If you aren't required to attend you will receive your check in the mail. If you won $600 or more you need to submit an IRS form W-9 prior to getting paid. You can download the form at our website at www.loc.org and you can fax it to 315-333-5295, email it to locderby@aol.com or send regular mail to LOC Derby, PO Box 472, Ontario NY 14519. You MUST submit this W-9 form in the year you win and cash your check prior to December 1st or you forfeit your prize.

These checks are usually mailed the second week after the close of the event. We need to go around to all the weigh in stations and registration outlets and collect all the registrations and check them, so it takes a little while. After you get your check PLEASE CASH IT. If you don't receive your check within a month from the end of the derby, please call the office at 315-333-5213.

Have fun and good luck in the Derby!

Brian Klice from Cuba, NY and his 24 lb 8 oz Spring Derby Winning King Salmon,

Klice Wins Spring Derby by One Ounce
By Bill Hiltz, Jr.

Klice, from Cuba, NY, was asked by Capt. Craig Hajecki and Justin Botting to go derby fishing aboard the Yankee Troller, a 36-foot Tiara that they use for chartering on Lake Ontario. On May 9, they were derby fishing out of Wilson. At the same time, they were doing some reconnaissance for the Big Boys Tournament on May 10 out of Wilson. One of the reasons they asked Klice to come with them is because he seems to carry a lucky horseshoe whenever he goes hunting or fishing.

It was 10:30 a.m. and they were trolling three miles from the New York/Canada border over 350 feet of water. The trio was running a deep rigger with a white spin doctor and a homemade light green fly that Botting made when a king salmon hit. Klice was on the rod and almost immediately another rod fired, and Botting was on it like a cat.

“It was like bedlam on the back of the boat trying to fight two king salmon at the same time,” said an excited Klice at the awards ceremony on May 11 at Riley’s Bar and Grill in North Rose. Ten minutes later, Klice had the first fish in, and it tipped the scales around 24-1/2 pounds. They hoped that the fish would hold up because the current leader was 24 pounds, 7 ounces. Then again, it was lucky Brian!

When they threw it on the scale at the Wilson Boatyard, the scale nudged just over the 24-pound, 8-ounce mark, giving them the new lead in the derby. It held up until it ended on Mother’s Day and the group collected a check for $15,500! Oh yeah, did we mention it was Brian’s first derby ever?

The fish that was one ounce back at 24 pounds, 7 ounces was caught by Diane Nieves of Lake Milton, Ohio. She caught it on the second day of the derby while fishing with her husband John Gaston of Lake Milton, OH and Charles Bunea of Green, Ohio.

“We were fishing out of Wilson on the Niagara Bar in 50 feet of water,” said Nieves. “We were trolling aboard the Reel Prince, a 22-foot Grady White. Using a diver on a No. 3 setting about 95 clicks back, the fish hit a green and white Northern King spoon at 6:05 a.m.”

Fifteen minutes later, Nieves had her first salmon while fishing in her first fishing derby. There was plenty of luck to go around. She won $2,500 for her first-place salmon.

Second place salmon was reeled in by Matt Dunn of Newfane while fishing aboard his 27-foot Tiara named “Streaker.” He was fishing with Doug Parker, Sr. of Lockport and Marty Polovick of Lockport on the Niagara Bar on May 4.

“We were in 120 feet of water, and we had a diver back 150 on a No. 1 setting,” recounted Dunn. “The lure was a USA Moonshine Carbon-14 spoon. It took me 15 minutes to bring the fish into the boat.”

Dunn and Polovick are no strangers to the winner’s circle, and they fished together for a couple grand prize catches, including a tie for the grand prize in 2014. However, the first fish weighed in is the tie breaker and they were second place overall. They also won the Grand Prize in 2016 for the spring derby.

The trio earned $2,500 for their salmon - $1,000 for second place, $500 for big fish of the day, and $1,000 for the biggest fish caught by a Lake Ontario Trout and Salmon Association member.

In the very competitive Lake Trout Division, James English of Mexico, NY set the pace with a 22-pound, 12-ounce fork-tail he caught opening weekend of the derby with friends Richard “Scott” Trump of Pulaski and Charles Trump of Sackets Harbor. They were fishing out of Charlie’s 25-foot Chaparral Spirit named “Ramblin’ Rose.”

“We were fishing out of Henderson Harbor in 150 feet of water on the bottom using Scotty riggers with a watermelon spin-n-glow and cowbells,” said English. “The fish hit at 7 a.m. and it took me 25 minutes to bring it in. We had to keep kicking the boat’s engine in and out of gear to get the fish to the boat. The fish is a personal best for me.” The laker earned a check for $1,450.

That same opening weekend, Charlie Trump reeled in a 17-pound, 8-ounce laker to place 10th and Richard Trump weighed in a 17-pound, 5-ounce laker to place 11th.

Second place lake trout went to Michael Germond of Micanopy, Florida with a 19-pound, 8-ounce fish he caught in Henderson Harbor aboard the Salmon Hunter the final weekend of the derby.

Fourth place was Anthony Fritz of Webster with an 18-pound, 11-ounce laker he caught fishing with his father Eric and his grandfather Bob Fritz of Macedon. What’s important about Anthony’s catch is that he was the Youth Award winner at 11 years old. His siblings Nina and Lyla are previous Youth Award winners.

“We were fishing out of Irondequoit Bay in 160 feet of water, and it was a little rough out there,” said Anthony. “We were fishing out of our 24-foot Osprey boat named ‘Fly and Fish’ using a blue and white spin-n-glow behind blue and silver Hammerhead cowbells on the bottom with the downrigger.” It took him 10 minutes to bring it in and it was a personal best lake trout for him.

After catching the fish, Grandpa Bob insisted that they go right in to weigh it. Anthony is glad they did because the catch bettered fifth place by just one ounce. “The fish was still alive when we put it on the scale at the Port of Rochester.”

The Brown Trout Division was a different story. For the 10-day derby, only two legal fish were weighed in. First place was a 12-pound, 1-ounce brown trout hauled in by Ed Dobrowolski of Milford, New Jersey. He was fishing with Jay Thatcher of Milford, NJ aboard the Lip Ripper – a 30-foot Penn Yan skippered by Capt. Kenny Krott of Lancaster, PA. He charts his boat out of Oswego.

They were running a Golden Bass Smithwick Rogue stickbait 180 feet back behind an Otter board over 18-20 feet of water when the brown trout hit at 7 a.m. It took Ed 15 minutes to bring his personal best brown to the boat to pick up his first derby win. They were fishing off Tommy’s Point.

Second place in the Brown Trout category was a 10-pound, 7-ounce fish reeled in by Gordon Walker of Ulster, Pennsylvania. He was fishing with Duane Shoemaker of Wysox, Pa. and Dale Griffith of Towanda, Pa. aboard a 21-foot Penn Yan named “Reel Nutzzz.”

“We were fishing about a half-mile west of Sodus in 6 feet of water, focusing on the mud line along the shore,” said Walker. “We had a black Moonshine spoon 125 feet back behind the boat. It was rougher than heck out there and I didn’t think the fish was that big ... until it was at the back of the boat! Then everyone got excited.”

later, the big fish was at the back of the boat in the net.
“We need a new roof and siding on our home,” said LoPresti. “Winning the derby comes at a great time.”

The most disappointed angler in the derby was 75-year-old Roy Hunsberger of Mexico, NY. Heading into the final day of action, he was sitting on top of the leaderboard with a 31-pound, 6-ounce king salmon ready to accept the Grand Prize on Monday. He fell just a few hours short of ultimate victory, but he still managed to get a check for $6,000 to win the Salmon Division.

Hunsberger was fishing with his friend Pete Paduch of Mexico, NY aboard his 26-foot Miami Steiger named “Fishin’ Frenzy” that Paduch used to charter fish out of. They were trolling on August 21 out of Oswego in over 600 feet of water, having a good day of action, when they decided to make one more pass before heading in. “We were trolling a Salmon Candy spoon on a free-floating slider on the rigger,” said Hunsberger. “The rigger was set at 45-foot and the big salmon hit the Steelie Candy mini on the slider, so it was down 22-23 feet. It took me 40 minutes to bring the fish to the back of the boat.” It was their 25th fish of the day.

There were some shenanigans that the duo had to deal with, too. The big fish jumped out of the water five times. It tangled in the dippy diver. It dove several times next to the boat. When they netted it and brought it into the boat, they knew it was better than 30 pounds.

Second place in the Salmon Division was Jason Ivino of Saugerties, NY with a 29-pound, 12-ounce king salmon he caught on August 23. It was a personal best for Ivino. He was fishing with Oswego residents Capt. Paul Powers (No Dilemma Sportfishing), Mike Batter, and Rick Drosin aboard Drosin’s 31-foot Penn Yan named “Road Show.”

“We almost ran out of line on the reel,” said Ivino at the awards ceremony. “The fish hit a Jack’s Pretty Girl flasher with an A-Tom-Mik shredded glow hammer fly that was behind a 250-foot copper line over 750 feet of water off Fair Haven. It really took off on me!” It took him 30 minutes to bring the fish in.

For the special Lake Ontario Trout and Salmon Association prize for the largest salmon caught by a member, Robert Schneider of Haydenville, Mass. weighed in a 26-pound, 1-ounce salmon at the Boat Doctors in Olcott to claim the $500 prize. Top Youth catch was a 28-pound, 3-ounce salmon reeled in by 10-year-old Phillip George of Locke while fishing out of Fair Haven.

Top fish in the Steelhead Division was a 17-pound, 10-ounce lunger that was reeled in by Capt. Nate Stephenson of Wilson while fishing out of his home port on August 23 with Ron Read of Sanborn.

“We were fishing 18 miles out, straight north of Wilson, and the bottom depth was actually getting shallower,” Stephenson recounted at the awards ceremony. He operates Triple J Charters out of Wilson. “We were just south of the Canadian border using a No. 4 Chinook Diver back 200 feet on a wire set-up. It was down 60-foot on my Smart Troll probe. The fish hit a Moonshine Magnum Raspberry Carbon 14 spoon at 9:30 a.m. and it jumped 10 times before it came to the boat 20 minutes later.”

It wasn’t easy to net either. Read had to scoop it up twice, after it jumped out of the net the first time. You could say it jumped 11 times overall. It was a personal best steelhead for Stephenson, the largest caught in the LOC derby in nearly a decade. Second place steelhead was caught by Richard “Rick” Angelone of Cleveland, Ohio, a personal-best 16-pound fish he reeled in off Olcott on August 19.

“We were fishing a little east of Olcott in 425 feet of water, running a Hulk magnum Moonshine spoon 99 feet down on the rigger,” said Angelone, who was fishing with Kevin Lukehart of Cleveland and Mark Frasse of Barberton, Ohio aboard Frasse’s 19-foot, 6-inch Starcraft named “Night Stalker” he won in the 2023 Fall Brawl on Lake Erie.

“We ended up with three fish on at once at one point,” said Angelone, fishing in his first derby on Lake Ontario. “Two of them were salmon so after fighting the smaller fish I thought was a salmon, I put it in the rod holder while we fought the two kings. Both were under 25 pounds so after I netted one of the salmon, I grabbed the rod in the holder to see if the fish was there. It was! It didn’t take very long before we realized it was a big steelhead! We were lucky for sure.” The hook came out as they netted the fish at the back of the boat.

First place brown trout was a 15-pound, 3-ounce fish hauled in by Bill Weber of Palmyra while fishing out of Hughes Marina in Williamson. He was fishing with Jim Nealon of North Rose out of his own 23-foot Crestliner named “Bladerunner.”

“We were fishing in 50 feet of water on August 17, running a Dreamweaver Green Gator spoon near the bottom with a downrigger,” said Weber. “The rod went off around 9 a.m. and we knew it was a good fish because it stayed down the entire time. We had a few panic moments like when the fish decided to dart to the other side of the motor when we were getting ready to net it.”
The fishing duo had paid their dues through the years. While they had placed in the money a few times previously, they had never won a division before. Their time had come.

Second place brown trout was Marcy Littlejohn of Lacona with a 14-pound, 13-ounce fish she reeled in while fishing off the Salmon River. She was fishing in her first derby ever, and it was a personal best brown trout. She was fishing with her husband Ron Littlejohn III, her father-in-law Ron Littlejohn, Jr. of Altmar, and Marzie Littlejohn of Troy. It was the final family fishing trip on the 28-foot “Double Trouble” Baha boat that Ron, Jr. chartered out of. He recently sold the boat and is retiring from charter fishing.

“We were in 73 feet of water, trolling a Stinger F/N green magnum spoon behind a diver 100 feet back on a No. 3 setting when the fish hit around 8 a.m.,” said Littlejohn. “It only took me about 10 minutes to bring it in.” It was a great family memory for the end of a charter fishing era.

21-foot Penn Yan boat named Finding Nemo. They decided to fish out of Henderson Harbor.

At 1 p.m., they had a Dirty Goose meat rig and a Bullfrog paddle down 90 feet on the rigger over 110 feet of water when the rod went off.

“We really didn’t think it was a big fish,” said Evans, who was fishing in his first derby, reeling in his first fish on the lake. “It didn’t act like a big fish, and it came right to the boat. It wasn’t until we saw it in the net that we realized how big this fish was.” It weighed in at 32 pounds, 4 ounces and they believed they had a winner. Fate was cruel to them.

Second place salmon was a 29-pound, 12-ounce salmon that was also caught the last Saturday of the derby – reeled in by Gerald Bielicki, Jr. of Corfu, NY. He was fishing with his father Gerald, Sr. of Akron and Joe Yuhnke of Tonawanda aboard their 20-foot Grady White named Bad Habit.

The trio also competed in the Lake Ontario Trout and Salmon Association’s club tournaments as the Mutiny team and, of course, they were fishing in the LOC Derby, too. For this big salmon, they were fishing off Wilson in 170 feet of water, using a Warrior yellow-tail spoon behind 10 colors of lead core line.

“The salmon hit around 8:30 a.m. in the morning,” said Bielicki. “Dad was driving the boat in an S-pattern, and we didn’t agree with what he was doing ... until the big fish hit! The fish was angry and at one point wrapped around a dipsy and a downrigger cable. It took me 20 minutes to bring it in.”

The lucky salmon was big enough to give them the win in the LOTSA Saturday contest and helped them win the 323 competition (three biggest fish over two days). In addition, they were the biggest fish caught by a LOTSA member in LOC to win an extra check for $750.

In the competitive Brown Trout Division, Amanda Kimble of Clinton, Maine was the eventual winner with a 16-pound, 8-ounce fish she caught on July 17 – fishing in her first derby ever. She was fishing with her husband Sam Kimble and father Peter Doyon of Sidney, Maine on board the Fish Fin-Addict, a 37-foot Trojan International Express run by Capt. Ron Molinari and his wife Amy. They were fishing outside of Sodus Bay.

“We were using a Northeast Troller green glow alewife spoon made by Christian Carlson of Thorndike, Maine,’ said Kimble at the awards ceremony. “He runs Northeast Troller and Taxidermy and is mounting the fish for me. Anyway, we were running his spoon on a diver set back 122 feet on a No. 3 setting over 60 feet of water when the fish hit at 9:13 a.m. It took me over a half hour to bring the fish to the back of the boat.”

Her father was an early leader in the derby with a 14-pound, 9-ounce brown trout he caught June 29. He finished in 9th place, also fishing with Capt. Ron. It led them to a new favorite saying for Lake Ontario fishing – “In Ron We Trust.”

Second place brown trout was reeled in Doug Angold of Rochester, a 16-pound, 4-ounce fish he caught on July 9 while fishing with his brother Fred, also of Rochester. The dynamic fishing duo were trolling out of their 16-foot Smokercraft named “Stelhedr 2” and they must pick the days they will be on the water. They were fishing out of Sandy Creek west of Rochester.

“We were using a silver and chartreuse Pirate spoon that I doctored up in 50 to 60 feet of water behind 7 colors of lead core line,” said Angold. “The fish hit around 10 a.m. and it took me about 10 minutes to bring it in.” His brother also finished in 16th place with a 13-pound, 13-ounce brown trout. They are out there every year and last year they both placed in the money, too.

First place Rainbow/Steelhead Trout was weighed in by Michael Lewis of Canastota with a 13-pound, 13-ounce silver bullet he caught pre-fishing for the Sodus/Wayne County Pro-Am Tournament on July 18. He was fishing with Cody Lewis of Palermo, Michael Lewis, Sr. of Central Square, and Tina Lewis of Central Square aboard their 28-foot Penn Yan named Double Treble.

“We were fishing in 300 to 400 feet of water using a 350-foot copper line with an A-Tom-Mik chrome and green meat head clean behind a green Pro Troll flasher when the fish hit at 9 a.m.,” said Lewis. “It took me about 5 minutes to bring it in and it’s the biggest steelhead that I have ever caught.”

Second place steelhead was hauled in by Robert Schindler of Chardon, Ohio and he made the list with a 13-pound, 9-ounce Olcott fish. He was fishing with John Cocco, Mark Slatery, and Father Walt Jenne, all from Ohio, and they were chartering with Capt. Craig Heitzenrater with Cranks Charters.

“It was rough out there and it was good we were in a 31-foot Tiara (Cranks),” said Schindler, only his second time fishing Lake Ontario. “Right after we caught the fish, we went right in to weigh it. However, we couldn’t get back out.” It was a personal best steelhead for Schindler, caught on a “Cranks Special” spoon that had a lot of orange in it.

In the Lake Trout Division, Jan Chybinski of Mexico, NY set the pace with a 25-pound, 1-ounce fish they caught out of Henderson Harbor. He was fishing Charlie “Pete” Henkel of Florida aboard their custom-made 24-foot Stanley boat.

“We were fishing between the trench and the shipping channel in 170 feet of water, trolling a Dardevle spoon in red and white down 165 feet on the rigger,” said Chybinski. “It took me about 20 minutes to reel it in. We’re just a couple of older guys playing around.” They caught the fish on July 6 at 7:30 a.m.

For the Youth Award, Lyla Fritz of Webster did it again and won her second youth trophy with an 18-pound, 8-ounce lake trout. She finished in 8th place overall, her highest ranking in a derby. She was fishing with her father Eric and grandfather Bob aboard their 24-foot Osprey named Fly-N-Fish.

“We were fishing off Irondequoit Bay in 120 feet of water with a Gambler rig and Hammerhead cowbells on the bottom with a downrigger,” she said at the awards ceremony. The fishing Fritz’s had three lake trout that placed in the Top 20 on the boat. Her sister and brother have also won youth awards in previous derbies.
