UPDATE -- The Marquie Group Expands its Whim Product Line

Company Expands its Inner Health, Outer Beauty Philosophy

LAS VEGAS, NV, April 03, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- via NEWMEDIAWIRE – Health/Wellness company and radio syndicator, The Marquie Group, Inc. (OTCPINK: TMGI), today announced the addition of a suite of CBD tinctures to its Whim product line.

The tinctures, now under development, join the beauty line created by 18-year Herbalife Nutrition beauty expert Jacquie Carter, which includes a face serum, eye serum, face mask/scrub, and a beauty drink.

“Our CBD tinctures will feature unique formulations of top-quality ingredients for sleep, immunity, and mental clarity, which fit perfectly with our Whim product line,” commented Ms. Carter.

The second batch of the Whim skincare samples is due next week, with the beauty drink currently in development.

Cannabidiol (CBD) is being increasingly recognized as a powerful health supplement with the potential to reduce anxiety and improved overall well-being without the psychoactive effects of THC.

Containing a wide spectrum of amino acids critical to skin function, CBD has the potential to mitigate environmental skin damage that leads to premature aging, eczema and can combat chronic skin disorders such as acne and psoriasis, and internally as a powerful anti-inflammatory agent.
