DAYS GUESTS (MAX)

This historic villa, with its sun-baked ochre walls and panoramic views of the olive, vine and chestnut-clad Tuscan hills, works both as a secluded retreat for family and friends and a peaceful base for exploring the Chianti wine region and nearby Florence. Restored and furnished by interior designer Ilaria Miani, it has eight elegantly colourful en-suite bedrooms and refined reception rooms including a converted dovecote with views to the Apennines; outside, sunlight slants through cypress trees and umbrella pines onto a heated outdoor pool in 14 hectares of lawns and wooded grounds. The nearest village, Chiesanuova, is 2km away.

8 DAYS | JULY 5 - AUGUST 16
FROM $68,000 | 16 GUESTS

Day 1 | Arrive Florence, Italy

Your Chianti adventure begins on your arrival in Florence, where your Guardian Angel is the first to welcome you to Italy. Drive through the beautiful Tuscan countryside to your Private Estate, your up-close introduction to the spectacular region you're about to explore. On arriving, your local host greets you with drinks, snacks and a refrigerator already packed with your favorites, and then introduces you to all the outstanding features and amenities of your new home. Following a leisurely afternoon of settling in, gather around the table for a chef-prepared welcome dinner.

Day 2 | Chianti | Culinary Chianti

Following a hearty continental breakfast, stretch out and get to know your Private Estate, lounging poolside or gathering for a game on the lawns. The flavors of last night's dinner still lingering on the palate, tonight is a great opportunity for your private cooking class, held right in your villa's kitchen. Armed with fresh produce, local cheeses and other delectable ingredients, your personal chef guides you through the preparation of several Italian specialties, with each course and recipe tailored to your group's experience and tastes. Feast on the fruits of your labors for another outstanding night of dining.

Day 3 | Chianti | Tuscan Art & Landscape

Each day of your stay is yours to spend as you please, and our local experts have prepared several enticing options for exploring the area around your Private Estate. You can set out on a walking tour of Florence, birthplace of the Renaissance. Begin at the storied Uffizi Gallery, home to admire celebrated works such as Caravaggio's Medusa, Botticelli's Birth of Venus and the Madonna of the Goldfinch by Raphael. You then stroll through Florence's historic Mercato Centrale to sample Tuscan street foods at its artisanal stalls. Alternately, get behind the wheel of a vintage roadster for a self-drive tour through the enchanting landscapes of the Chianti region, accompanied by a local expert. Head to Siena to explore its historic center and then stop for a gourmet lunch with each dish perfectly prepared using fresh, locally sourced ingredients.

Day 4 | Chianti | Wine Tasting

Today is an excellent opportunity for a sunrise balloon flight over Chianti. On this optional excursion, the beautiful landscapes of Tuscany unroll before you, bathed in the early morning light as you soar high above them. Touch ground again to find an elegant continental breakfast laid out for you, complete with sparkling wine to toast this unforgettable moment. Return to the villa for a relaxing day. The evening's highlight is a wine tasting, led by an expert in local viticulture and held right on the grounds of your Private Estate. Sample a hand-picked variety of local reds and whites as the late afternoon sun casts your surroundings in a warm, golden glow.
