SUBSTANCE USE CONSULTATIONS

Are you, or someone you know, having negative experiences as a result of substance use?

Are you hoping to gain a better understanding of addiction and how it can take hold?

Are you looking for support related to substance use or addiction?

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

Fernbrook Family Center, is now offering an opportunity for individuals to increase their understanding of substance use and addiction.

This opportunity will provide support and information related to how to avoid or manage substance use, misuse, and addiction. Additionally, individuals will receive information and support related to different substances and their impact on the body.

This opportunity is not intended to treat current or past use, but rather provide support and education for individuals related to substance use, misuse, and addiction. If needed, or requested, individuals will receive additional information related to services available in the area that could provide ongoing treatment for their substance use needs.
