About us

One Leg B4 the Other is committed to supporting veterans as they transition from military service to civilian life. We provide essential clothing—jeans and pants—that not only meet basic needs but also symbolize respect and dignity.

Our mission is to empower veterans to overcome obstacles, build confidence, and thrive. By offering practical assistance, we help veterans establish stability and independence as they navigate their new lives. We honor and serve those who have served our country, ensuring their sacrifices are valued and remembered.

Your support makes each step possible.

- Every night, about 37,000 veterans are without a home (U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, 2022)
- Veterans make up 11% of the adult homeless population in the U.S. (National Alliance to End Homelessness, 2023)
- Transitioning to civilian life isn't easy—many veterans face challenges like job placement, mental health struggles, and finding affordable housing (U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, 2022)
- Mental health is a critical issue, with many homeless veterans battling PTSD and other disorders (National Coalition for Homeless Veterans, 2023)

Our Mission & Purpose

Our organization recognizes the sacrifices made by veterans and is committed to providing them with one less worry as they navigate life. Through our services, we strive to empower veterans to overcome obstacles, build confidence, and thrive in their civilian lives. One Leg B4 the Other is dedicated to honoring and serving those who have served our country, ensuring they receive the assistance and respect they deserve as they embark on the next chapter of their lives.

"We believe in a transformative approach. If we can outfit a veteran properly while engaging in meaningful conversation—something I believe is a mission bestowed upon me—we can ignite remarkable change. From zero to hero, we witness profound impacts in their lives and those of their families. This is how we create lasting results."

— MATT HUMMEL, PRESIDENT

"WHEN A VETERAN WHO ONCE STOOD TALL FOR OUR FREEDOM IS LEFT TO SLEEP ON THE FLOOR, IT'S OUR MISSION TO HELP THEM RISE AGAIN. THIS IS WHY WE DO WHAT WE DO—BECAUSE EVERY HERO DESERVES A PLACE OF DIGNITY AND RESPECT."

— JOSEPH POWELL, FOUNDER

Build A Support System For Our Heros

One Leg B4 the Other is committed to honoring our veterans by providing seven pairs of pants to those in need, with each pair named after a fallen hero. This initiative reflects our deep respect and unwavering dedication to their sacrifices. Starting in the Midwest and expanding nationwide, we aim to support veterans facing weight changes due to medications and harsh living conditions, helping to restore their comfort and dignity in civilian life.
