

RULES OF PLAY FOR SURVIVOR

- 1a The game is played with a golf putter and golf balls
- 1b The game is played on a lawn bowls green
- 1c The game can be played by up to 10 players individually in one lane, each player must have a ball of a different colour or markings so as to be able to identify from each other
- 1d Participants play in a particular order, drawn by lot and recorded, player who goes first in round one will go last in round two if they are not eliminated
- 2a Once one end has been played the next end commences in the opposite direction
- 2b The first player to start each end can choose the position to putt from, each subsequent player must play from that same length but can move laterally to either side of the marked lane
- 2c The first player determines where to play from and rolls out the jack by hand to any length, the jack is then centred in the playing lane
- 2d The defined playing area is the marked lines or boundaries of the lane up to the gutter and including to a point at least halfway to the distance of the jack.
- 2e Any ball that finishes outside of the defined playing area is deemed to be Out of Bounds and that player is eliminated. A ball may be knocked out of bounds by a fellow competitor's ball, that player is then eliminated. Multiple players may be eliminated from each end.
- 3a The player whose ball finishes the furthest from the jack and in the field of play is eliminated from the game.
- 3b If any player hits the jack and their ball finishes the closest to the jack, they have the ability to extend a lifeline to any person that would otherwise have been eliminated for any reason. This includes the player whose ball finishes in the field of play but furthest distance from the jack, it includes any player whose ball may have gone Out of Bounds.
- 3c The lifeline may be used at any time including as an immunity to save themselves.
- 3d One lifeline can be generated at each end and the winner of a lifeline can choose to save them as multiple immunities or to save others in an alliance.
- 4a The last man standing is the winner and sole SURVIVOR.
