

Florida educators must act with integrity, professionalism, and respect, always prioritizing student safety, well-being, and development. They must avoid discrimination, protect student rights, maintain confidentiality, and promote a fair learning environment.

Educators are required to:

- Act honestly and responsibly with students, colleagues, and the public
- Avoid misuse of position, false statements, or personal gain
- Report misconduct and certain legal issues within 48 hours
- Follow all professional and legal standards or risk disciplinary action

Under Florida law, anyone who reports child abuse, abandonment, or neglect in good faith is protected from legal liability and workplace retaliation.

Employers are protected when sharing employee information unless it is false or violates rights.

Bright Abilities Academy follows equal opportunity and non-discrimination policies and provides clear contacts for reporting discrimination or misconduct.

For State of Florida Code of Ethics and Principles and Florida State Statutes

Code of Ethics of the Education Profession in Florida 6A-10.080

- (1) The educator values the worth and dignity of every person, the pursuit of truth, devotion to excellence, acquisition of knowledge, and the nurture of democratic citizenship. Essential to the achievement of these standards are the freedom to learn and to teach and the guarantee of equal opportunity for all.
- (2) The educator's primary professional concern will always be for the student and for the development of the student's potential. The educator will therefore strive for professional growth and will seek to exercise the best professional judgment and integrity.
- (3) Aware of the importance of maintaining the respect and confidence of one's colleagues, of students, of parents, and of other members of the community, the educator strives to achieve and sustain the highest degree of ethical conduct.
