Discover the Story of Oliver, Olin and Martin Lakes

Celebrating the History of Our Lakes

From early cottages and summer traditions to family memories passed down through generations, the story of Oliver, Olin and Martin Lakes is finally being preserved in print.

This book will be a beautiful heirloom book, designed as a keepsake for families, residents, and friends of the lakes. It will preserve treasured photographs, stories, and lake traditions in a high-quality edition.

Included in the book are the TRUE and documented stories of the origins of the names of Oliver, Olin, and Martin Lakes, plus much more:

- Historic photographs and maps
- Stories of longtime lake families
- History of Limberlost Camp
- History of businesses on the lakes
- Local area history

How You Can Help Make the Story of Our Lakes a Reality

Share Your Stories

We are seeking stories, especially stories that occurred before 1980.

- Old photographs
- Family stories and memories
- Historical documents
- Stories about cottages, camps, boating, fishing, and events

Scanned materials can be returned safely after use. You will be asked to sign a release waiver giving us permission to use your story/photos in the history book.

Book Cover Contest

Have an iconic picture or original artwork of our lakes? Provide a photo or art suitable for the front and back covers of this book. The History committee will judge submissions. The winner or winners will receive a free book.

Become a Donor

We invite families, former residents, lake homeowners, and local supporters to help cover the costs of producing the book. A generous private donor has offered to match funds up to $5,000 to make this book possible. All donations will be gladly accepted. Please mail checks, payable to OMLCIA, Inc., with the memo line: "History Book."
