Join us for a fun bus trip to Eataly Boston

Saturday, April 22

The Italian food emporium known as Eataly has opened in the Prudential Center of Boston. Like the chain’s other U.S. enterprises—one in Chicago, two in New York—the three-level, 45,000-square-foot dining-and-gourmet-shopping complex – inspires appreciation for local ingredients with some over-the-top features—think gilded pizza ovens, a pedal-operated cannoli cart, and a mozzarella “lab”. Each of Eataly’s 35 locations worldwide takes on a different theme. Boston’s, appropriately enough, is seafood. “The water is what makes New England similar to Italy,” says Eataly USA CEO Nicola Farinetti, son of the Turin, Italy-based chain’s founder, Oscar Farinetti.

Join us for a trip to explore Boston’s new Italian attraction. The King Ward bus will leave the Eastfield Mall commuter parking lot (next to Sears) at 10:00 am. We should return to the Eastfield Mall around 7:00 pm. The cost of the trip is $45.00 per person. Space is limited and seats will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis. Reservations must be made in advance by calling Stephanie at 860-305-1175 or

A pop-up style restaurant that will change its theme and menu every two to three months

Gnocchi Make and Take

Saturday, April 8th

A gnocchi-making class will be held on Saturday, April 8, from 1:00 – 3:00 pm at the ICC. What could be better than sharing in this Italian tradition together? An instructor, supplies and space will be provided for adults and children. Just bring an apron and take home what you make. Space is limited. Seats will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis. Call Stephanie at 860-305-1175 or email to Cooking-wicc@comcast.net to request a registration form and to check seating availability. Payment must be received by April 1, 2017, to guarantee a seat. Friday Night at the Italian Cinema

The Salt of Life (Gianni e le Donne)

By Gianni DiGregorio (2011)
Comedy, 1 hour and 30 minutes
In Italian with English subtitles

Plot: In ‘The Salt of Life’, Gianni plays a middle-aged retiree who has become invisible to all the women of Rome, regardless of age or relation. He contends with an aristocratic, spendthrift mother, a wife who is more of a patronizing friend than romantic partner; a daughter with a slacker boyfriend whom Gianni unwillingly befriends; and a wild young neighbor who sees him merely ... as a dog walker. Watching his codger friends snare beautiful young mistresses on the sun-kissed cobblestones of Trastevere, Gianni tries his polite, utterly gracious best to generate some kind of extracurricular love life – with both hilarious and poignant results.

Trama: In ‘The Salt of Life’, Gianni gioca un pensionato di mezza età che è diventato invisibile a tutte le donne di Roma, indipendentemente dall'età o relazione. Egli sostiene con un'aristocratica, madre spendaccione, una moglie che è amico più paternalistico di partner romantico; una figlia con un ragazzo scansafatiche cui Gianni fa amicizia malincuore; e un giovane vicino di casa selvaggio che lo vede solo ... come un cane camminatore. Guardando i suoi amici vecchi strambi intrappolano belle giovani amanti sui ciottoli baciati dal sole di Trastevere, Gianni cerca la sua gentile, assolutamente gentile migliore per generare una sorta di vita extra curricolare amore – con risultati sia esilaranti e commoventi.

We are taking a trip to Boston's North End!

Join us on Saturday, May 20, 2017 for a bus trip to Boston's North End. The North End is one of Boston's most culturally exciting neighborhoods and it is often referred to as Boston's "Little Italy". The community is known for its historical richness, fine dining, quaint cafes, gelato, and interesting people. A visit wouldn't be complete without seeing some important American sites, such as, Paul Revere's house, the Old North Church, and Copp's Hill Burying Ground—whose earliest grave marker dates back to 1661.

We will leave the Eastfield Mall Commuter Parking lot at 10:00 am and arrive in Boston around noon. Once we arrive in Boston, you will be on your own to choose when and where to have lunch, shop, and sightsee. We meet the bus for our return to Eastfield Mall at 5:00 pm. The cost of the trip is $45.00 per person. Space is limited and seats will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis. Reservations must be made in advance by calling Stephanie at 860-305-1175 or emailing to iccwm@comcast.net.

ICC DINNER RESERVATION POLICY

PLEASE!!
NOTE

We appreciate very much your support of our dinners. However, after a recent dinner, we were painfully reminded of the need to strictly follow our reservations policy, since several persons who had made phone reservations without payment, decided not to attend the dinner and thus did not pay for the food which we had ordered for them. We therefore must strictly adhere to our rule that all dinner attendees must make their reservations and send payment to the ICC by the published deadline. Money and/or unplanned reservations will not be accepted at the door. This policy allows us to plan ahead to ensure that we have enough food, sufficient space for everyone, and no leftover unpaid dinners. We are sure that you can understand the need for this policy, and that no exceptions can be granted. Grazie.
