

Dear Publisher Partner,

Hudson News and TransMet Logistics USA, LLC are writing jointly to advise you of an upcoming operational transition affecting newspaper distribution in select markets.

After many years of service, Hudson News will be transitioning its newspaper distribution operations in Gorham, Maine, and Harrisburg and Allentown, Pennsylvania. Effective January 26th, 2026, TransMet Logistics USA, LLC will assume responsibility for newspaper distribution in these markets.

Hudson News will continue to deliver and invoice all product distributed through January 25th, 2026. Distribution beginning January 26th, 2026, and onward will be performed and invoiced by TransMet Logistics USA.

To ensure a seamless and efficient transition, TransMet will utilize Hudson News' existing circulation system for an initial transition period. This will preserve continuity and data integrity across title quantities, pricing, sales, returns, and reporting.

- Delivery schedules, service days, and delivery times will remain unchanged
- Existing pricing and delivery charges will remain unchanged
- The current delivery network will continue to be used

Hudson News has been proud to service these markets for many years, and it has truly been our pleasure working with our publisher partners. We are fully confident that TransMet Logistics USA has the expertise, infrastructure, and operational discipline required to maintain and uphold the high level of service you have come to expect. Total customer satisfaction remains a shared priority.

TransMet Logistics USA currently operates newspaper distribution services in the State of Vermont and maintains established relationships and agreements with all major national newspaper publishers. Its sister companies, TransMet Logistics, Metropolitan Media Distribution and Metropolitan Media Services have been servicing both Canadian and American publishers over the last 30 years with single copy wholesale, import, and publisher hauling. They also complete +10,000 home deliveries in and around Montreal, Quebec daily.

- Products received by Hudson News on or before January 25th, 2026, remains payable by Hudson News
- Products received by TransMet Logistics USA as of January 26th, 2026, remain payable by TransMet Logistics USA

We appreciate your partnership over the years and thank you for your continued cooperation during this transition.

Sincerely,

John Cirrone
President
Hudson News
jcirrone@hudsonrpm.com

Jeff McNulty
Vice-President
TransMet Logistics USA, LLC
jmcnulty@transmet.ca