Trip description

Join a group of up to 12 women on an incredible weeklong golf trip to the official home of golf.

Over the course of 8 days, we'll:

- Play golf on some of Scotland's historic links courses
- Experience the best of Edinburgh, a world-class city built around a castle
- Relax in a quaint coastal golf village

The itinerary is built for golfers like you: we'll play 5 rounds of golf across 8 days on courses that are great for beginners and you don't need any prior golf travel experience to belong on this trip. With a mix of short, walkable courses, and rest days to explore your surroundings, this is the perfect introduction to Scotland and the ideal first international golf trip.
