POWER FOR TODAY

Pulpit Minister

SOMBODY, ANYBODY, EVERYBODY, AND NOBODY

In every church there are four types of people: Somebody, Anybody, Everybody, and Nobody.

When it comes to visiting the sick, Somebody says, "Anybody is good at that." Anybody says, "Everybody needs to try to." Everybody says, "Somebody better."

And Nobody does.

When it comes to helping the poor, Somebody says, "Anybody needs to help." Anybody says, "Everybody has the opportunity." Everybody says, "Somebody will get around to it."

And Nobody does.

When it comes to serving the community, Somebody says, "That sounds like a great job for Anybody." Anybody says, "Everybody should get involved." Everybody says, "Somebody is taking care of that."

And Nobody does.

When it is time to support mission work, Somebody says, "Anybody should help." Anybody says, "Everybody needs to." Everybody says, "Somebody will get to it."

And Nobody does.

When it comes time to attend worship, Somebody says, "Anybody can make it." Anybody says, "Everybody should be there." Everybody says, "Somebody will go."

And Nobody does.

And when it comes time to go to Heaven, Anybody says, "I can't wait to go." Anybody says, "This is going to be great." Everybody says, "Praise the Lord, let's go!"

And Nobody does.

Welcome to Lomax

Special Welcome to our Guests!

We are glad to have you visiting with us today! You are welcome here. We know you have a choice of where to worship, and you chose to be with us today — thank you.

At Lomax we want to be the church we read about in the Bible. Our goal is to glorify God with our worship and with our lives and to point people to Jesus Christ.

If you need anything during the service, ushers in the lobby can direct you to restrooms, or the nursery.

Please fill out a blue attendance card located on the back of the pew in front of you or scan the QR Code to the right. If you have any questions or if we can help you, please let us know while you are here or call our church Office at (931) 796-5381.

(Scan QR Code with your phones camera and follow the link)

A 'Squeak' in The Pulpit

Several years ago, I read of an entry found in an old church record of a business meeting. The entry stated the following: "A committee was appointed to investigate the squeak in the pulpit."

While I am sure the business of this church meeting described in the entry was not referring to the content of the preacher's message.

I couldn't help my mind from wandering when I read that line. I began to wonder how many churches today have a similar problem, that is, a squeak in the pulpit? Now, maybe more than ever, our society desperately needs more than a "squeak" coming from the pulpit.

Our SALT group had a great time with fellowship eating together, laughing, playing bingo and celebrating with Doctor Mike Parker on his retirement. "You shall rejoice in all the good that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house." – Deuteronomy 26:11

It is disturbing to hear how many churches are "selling out to the culture." The distinctive preaching of New Testament Christianity is seldom heard in some pulpits. As in the days of Josiah, the Book of the Law may be lost, in all places, the house of God. In some quarters, sermons which challenge our morals, expound our doctrine, question our ethics, and rebuke our mediocrity are exchanged for sermons that have an air of religiosity, but which are lacking in substance. We must understand there is a real danger of so "watering down" the gospel of Christ that it is rendered useless, lacking the power to convict and cause people to change.

There are many challenges which face the church today. If we are to meet these challenges, we must have a strong pulpit. Pulpits that will speak the truth in season and out of season, with all the love it can muster. Pulpits that will not compromise the truth. Pulpits that do more than just "squeak."
